STEWARTTOWN

Veteran of five year's service with the R.O.E. overseas, Opl. Lorne Barrow arrived in the village yesterday and will spend thirty days leave with his family.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ross Thompson on the arrival of a baby boy, born on Monday—a brother for June, Lois and Gail.

Donald Hodge had a birthday last Friday and visitors who helped him celebrate were his grandma, Mrs. E. Harris, his cousins, June and Barbara Lusty, all of Georgetown; also his cousin, Evelyn Harris, of Toronto. Donald is five years old.

Miss Coyne, of Toronto, is student teacher at our school this week.

The school returned to summer time on Monday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The W.A. meeting last week was at Mrs. Joseph Standish's home.

Mr. P. R. Bailly, of Hamilton, was at his home here Tuesday evening and night.

Lemon Juice Recipe Checks Arthritic Pain Quickly

If you suffer from arthritic, rheumatic, or neuritic pain, try this simple inexpensive home recipe. Get a package of Ru-ex Prescription from your druggist. Mix it with a quart of water, and the juice of 4 lemons. It's easy and pleasant.

You need only 2 tablespoonful two times a day. Often within 48 hours—sometimes overnight—splendid results are obtained. If the pains are not quickly relieved and if you do not feel better, Ru-ex Prescription will cost you nothing to try. Your money refunded. It does not help you. Ru-ex Prescription is for sale and recommended by MacCormack's Drug Store and other leading druggists.

LOCAL NEWS

—The trees will soon be out in full leaf.

—The Georgetown Lumber Co. are erecting a new fence in front of their mill property on Water St.

—Many of the local gardeners who were out on the land the first warm day this spring, decided it was a trifle early and are holding up operations for a week or so.

—Mr. Walter Carpenter, who attended the O.E.A. meetings in Toronto last week, was appointed to the Council of the Classical Section of the O.E.A. and to the Council of the newly formed Ontario Classical Association.

—Mr. K. M. Langdon has secured a number of lots on the lower end of Market Street, and at present has a bulldozer clearing the underbrush and levelling the lots. This section will make a fine residential part of the town.

—Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kenney have moved to Erin Township, near Ballinacra, where Mr. Kenney will assist his father on their recently purchased turkey farm.

—Wait for the Annual Spring Rex-all One Cent Sale next Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 18th, 19th, 20th and 21st at your Rex-all Drug Store.

—The Auditors' Report for the Town of Georgetown has been printed and is now in the hands of the clerk. Anyone interested in town affairs may secure a copy by applying at the Municipal Office.

—The Public School prize list of the Georgetown Fall Fair is now off to the press, and has been mailed out to all district teachers. The schools are taking an even greater interest in the fair this year, and a very attractive prize list has been prepared.

—April 21st is the day. St. George's Rummage Sale. Watch for particulars in next week's Herald.

BIRTH NOTICE

COMPTON—In Guelph General Hospital, April 3rd, 1945, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Compton, a son—Robert Wayne.

IN MEMORIAM

ALLEN—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother (Elizabeth L. Belgrove) Mrs. Thomas Allen, who died Tuesday, March 9th, 1943.

RESTING

She is sleeping, she is resting where an emerald carpet grows, And the slender poplars sway against the sky, As the flaming sun is westing in a chariot of rose And her dreams are soft and gentle as a sigh.

She is resting, she is sleeping, through the stillness of the night Softly smiling through her dream, recalling still How the silver moon is keeping trysts upon a starry height And the shadows weave their pattern on the hill.

She is resting, she is sleeping where the olive poplars grow, Where the summer wind slips through them like a song, And my heart must cease its weeping, for her love would have it so, Her deathless love, so golden and so strong.

She is sleeping, she is resting, dreaming in the grass and fern Of a sunrise breaking golden on the grove, When my feet shall cease their questing, and my lonely heart shall turn, Swiftly homeward through the shadow where the purple rockets burn, To the warm eternal shelter of her love.

SLEIGHTHOLME

In loving remembrance of a dear husband and father Arthur Sleightholme, who passed away April 9th, 1926. Nothing but memories as we journey on Longing for the smile from a loved one gone; None knows the depth of our deep regret, But we remember when others forget. —Lovingly remembered by Wife and daughter Stella.

HORNBY

The Women's Association met at the home of Mrs. Milton Brown on Monday afternoon last. April 8th. There was a good attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Wilson had the misfortune to lose their brooder house and about four hundred baby chicks by fire on Friday morning last. As there was a wind blowing that morning the fire was kept from spreading to other nearby buildings. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Christman expect to move soon to their new home in the village, purchased recently from Mr. Guy Russell. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robertson of Guelph, visited at the home of their son Fred over the week end. Rev. R. D. Trask, of Atwood, occupied the three pulpits on the Hornby charge of the United Church last Sunday very acceptably. Mrs. Trask accompanied her husband on the trip. Next Sunday the Rev. Geo. T. Simpson of Mt. Hope, Ont., will be in charge of all the services on the Hornby charge. The sound of the tractor is heard on many local farms these days. If the fine weather continues a great deal of the seeding will be completed this week. The land is in good condition for cultivation. The members of Ashgrove Women's Missionary Society Auxiliary held their April meeting at the parsonage on Tuesday afternoon of this week. There was a large attendance, and a very helpful program. Mrs. Thos. Giffen presided. The guest speaker was Mrs. Howson of the Cedarvale School for Girls, Georgetown. She gave a very inspiring Easter message. The hostess, Mrs. Totton, served lunch which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

SON OF W. W. HILTS KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

Gordon Hilts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley W. Hilts, who were born in this district and later moved to Toronto, was killed in an airplane crash last week. He was delivering a plane from England to the United States, when they ran into a bad snow-storm and crashed. The boy's father, W. W. Hilts, was born and raised in Erin Township, near Ballinacra. Several years later he moved to Toronto and was mayor of the city for several terms. Gordon, who was 22 years of age, was born in Toronto, and surviving him are his mother, formerly O. Laidlaw of Georgetown, two brothers and four sisters.
