

STEWARTTOWN

The Stewarttown Soldiers' Reception Committee are holding a social evening in the school room on Thursday, May 10th, at 8.30 p.m. The ladies are providing the sandwiches and everyone is welcome.

Congratulations to CEM Ken Murray upon his promotion, Good going Ken.

Requesting Women's Institute annual meeting was held in the Council Chamber. The report of the secretary-treasurer was given and showed a lot of work done during the past year. Mrs. H. P. Lawson took the chair for election of officers for 1945, which are: President, Mrs. DeVries; 1st vice, Mrs. H. P. Lawson; 2nd vice, Mrs. J. O. Murray; sec-treas., Mrs. W. Lawson, who is also District Director. Directors, Mrs. M. Bally, Mrs. E. Hodges; lunch committee, Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. J. Corner.

Lt.-Col. S. Hunt, of Brampton, was home over the week end. W.A. meeting was at Mrs. Joseph Standish's home.

Mrs. Dickenson, John, Christine and Mrs. John Standish went to Toronto Wednesday morning to meet Tpr. Tom Dickenson, M.M., who has returned from being overseas since 1941. Tom came home with them and will return to Toronto later for more treatments.

We were glad to welcome Cpl. Lorne Barrow home the previous week. We hope to see more of our boys returning soon.

ASHGROVE

The Young People held their regular meeting Sunday evening in the church. George Wilson, Christian Culture convenor, took the chair. Mrs. Chester DeForest and John Bird took part in the worship service. Doris Brownridge gave a well-prepared paper on a few outstanding composers of music of the past.

Miss Betty Ruddell spent the week end in Toronto with Miss Isabel Coyne.

Miss Isney Kean spent the week-end at her home near Rockwood.

HORNBY

His many friends and neighbours are glad to welcome back again Mr. John King. He returned home on Saturday last after spending the winter months in the home of his son, Dr. Leslie King, of Galt, Ontario. Mr. King appears to have wintered well and seems to be in his usual excellent health.

Everyone is pleased to see Mrs. McIntosh back in her home again after having spent the winter in the comfortable home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Huffman.

Next Sunday the pulpits of all three United Churches on the Hornby charge will be occupied by the Rev. F. W. Almsworth, M.A., B.D., of Townsend, Ontario, at the regular hours.

On Sunday evening at nine o'clock a joint meeting of the three congregations will be held in the Hornby United Church to consider extending a call to a minister.

Rev. A. O. W. and Mrs. Foreman of Ballinafad visited at the parsonage last Thursday, April 26th.

BALLINAFAD

The April meeting of the W. M. S. was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. P. J. Shortill. Mrs. Norman Sinclair had charge of the devotional exercises from the March Missionary Monthly. She was assisted by Miss B. Hills and Mr. F. W. Shortill. The topic, the last chapter of the study book, was well explained by Mrs. J. McEnery.

The monthly meeting of the Farm Forum was held Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Root-Warne. A good program had been prepared by the committee in charge. Mr. Foreman was in charge of two contests from the Bible which proved very interesting and showed need of more Bible study by the majority of old and young.

Another of the pioneers of this district was laid to rest Friday afternoon. Mrs. A. J. Lindsay, who was born and lived all her life a short distance from Ballinafad, died at her home last Wednesday. The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved husband and family.

A full house enjoyed the play in Ballinafad hall Friday night. Great credit is due the young people of Caledon East for the successful rendering of the play. Congratulations are tendered Rev. Metcalfe for his efforts in training the cast.
