We're waiting for the green light. When telephone men and materials are back again, we'll resume our rural expansion program where we left off.

First job of all will be to supply service to families on our waiting list.

Then will come such major projects as extending facilities into new areas; replacing "veteran" equipment; raising standards of service.

Simply to relieve present crowding on rural lines will mean running more than 8,000 miles of wire from present pole lines. Then we'll need extensions to the pole lines themselves some 2,500 miles of them-to reach additional communities. Wherever we find one family per half mile of main road wanting telephones, we plan to construct pole lines

It all means PEOPLE AT WORK . . . work which must be done, if telephone service is to keep pace with rural needs. It is work which calls for the efforts of linemen, service men, operators, office workers.

To get it done, we'll need not only every present Bell employee, plus all those now away on military service, but many more workers besides.

AFTER FINAL VICTORY,

WE'LL STILL BE

On Active Service Giving Wings to Words

to serve them.

With his parents, he lived in Georgetown and attended public school here until the family moved to Guelph about eight years ago.

CPL, JOAN BROWNE WINS DOMINION RIFLE COMPETITON

Second girl to win the coveted expert's badge in the Dominion Marksmen Army Competition is Opl. Joan Browne of Norval, Stationed in Ottawa as a laboratory technician with the National Research Council, she is the daughter of Mrs. W. G. M Browne and the late Mr. Browne of Norval, Opl. Browne scored 99 plus in the recent competitions and has been prominently mentioned in the daily press and radio news as the "William Tell of Canada."

Over-enthusiastic reporters, however, have erred in relating that Cpl. Browne had never held a gun in her hands before joining the CWAC, for she is an old hand at the sport and while attending high school in Georgetown was a champion in the Halton County cadet competition. Her father was one-time president of the Norval
