BOILING

105 Mills
Across Canada

In pulp and paper mills from coast to coast, over 37,000 Canadians have been working to help meet wartime needs. Today's war work is also contributing to the industry's peacetime activity when steady jobs will mean so much to Canadians.

Here's a busy "cook" with orders from the four corners of the earth. The "pot" he cooks with is a great digester which takes huge batches of wood chips and it keeps going night and day.

A world at war must have pulp and paper and paper-board products in huge quantities, and Canada is playing a big part in meeting the increased needs of all free countries.

Mills across Canada are "cooking" millions of tons of pulp. They are working round-the-clock to "keep the pot boiling" for a maximum supply of essential products.

TERRA COTTA

On Sunday, May 9th, the auditorium was crowded to the doors for a farewell presentation by the United Church S. S. to Miss Pearl Kennedy of Georgetown, their retiring teacher. An address was read commenting on her faithful service for the Sunday School, and Master John McNally presented a well-filled purse from the pupils and people of Terra Cotta.

We are sorry to learn that Mr Norman Icam is on the sick list at present. We hope soon to hear of his complete recovery.

Mr. James Mackie has arrived home from Christie Street Hospital much improved in health.

Mr. Leslie Icam is having his houses newly shingled and other decided improvements which when completed will add considerably to their appearance.

W. J. Rutledge is having the electric lights turned on in his river-view mansion on Main Street, which certainly adds considerably to the appearance of our village. "Let there be light".

Week-end visitors included Miss Laughton of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Vandervliet, of Toronto, Miss Annie Puckering of Toronto.

Wedding bells are still ringing quite loudly in our hamlet.

W. F. Hunter is doing a rushing trade with his hay baler. We wish him continued success in his new industry.

Ward Riddell, last week.

Mrs. Mark Collier and Audrey visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wilson recently.

HORNBY

Owing to the mistake made by someone, we will not venture to say who, the Annual Blossom Tea of Bethel W. M. S. auxiliary was stated in our news of last week to be on May 26th. It is to be held on Thursday afternoon May 24th at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Rev. Howard Veale, a missionary home on furlough from West China will be guest speaker. A good musical program will also be given.

Next Sunday, Summer Time will be inaugurated at Bethel United Church. Church service will be held at 10 a.m. and Sunday School at 11 o'clock.

Miss Tillie Patterson, who spent the winter months at the home of her nephew, Mr. Archie Kine, returned recently to her home at Omega for the summer months.

BOOM IN TATTOOED LADIES

War has sent women flocking to have service numbers and insignias inked permanently on their epidermis, while others go in for lizards, blue-bells and the boy friend's picture. Read about this tattooing craze in The American Weekly with this Sunday's (June 3) issue of The Detroit Sunday Times.

ASHGROVE

The May meeting of Ashgrove W. I. was held Tuesday afternoon, May 15, at the home of Mrs. J. J. Thompson, with a good attendance of members and visitors.

The meeting opened with the Institute Ode and the Lord's Prayer. A report of the District Annual was given by Mrs. Cecil Wilson.

The meeting was in charge of the Grandmothers. The Motto was, "Whistle while you work", and was taken by Mrs. C. B. Dick. Four grandmothers sang some old songs accompanied by Mrs. Archer on the guitar. It was decided to give a cup and saucer to the high beginner at the Achievement Day in Milton. To the members of the best team demonstrations, each member will receive a box of plants.

Mrs. Nurse gave a very interesting paper on "Growing old gracefully and happy." There was community singing and a contest by Mrs. Dick. The meeting closed with God Save the King and a social half hour was spent over the tea cups.

Mrs. Ken Stroud of Chatham visited at her parents home, Mr. and Mrs.

The King Manpower Policy —

"The Greatest Hoax ever perpetrated on a Nation."

"It is a national disgrace and a blight upon the good name of Canadian citizenship. To give political considerations priority over the nation's interest is intolerable and unforfeitable."

John Bracken

Dominion-wide disunity is today the gravest danger facing Canada. The political abasement of the King Government's Manpower Policy reaped in wartime the seeds it sowed in peacetime.

"King or Chaos" of the 1940 election campaign has been King AND Chaos ever since. National unity, to which the King Government has paid only lip-service, was sold for political advantage in time of gravest national emergency.

THE PRICE CANADA HAS PAID for the unequal burdens of the King Manpower Policy is beyond measure. Army statistics tell the story. Tragically, the casualty lists bear mute witness to it.

THE PROGRESSIVE CONSERVATIVE PARTY HAS CONSISTENTLY CONDEMNED THE INJUSTICE OF A

PURELY POLITICAL MANPOWER POLICY. We do not hesitate therefore to describe the King Manpower Policy, and all the furtive political manipulations which characterized the administration of that policy, as a gross miscarriage of social, political and economic justice. As our forthright, progressive leader has said, it was — and is — "the greatest hoax ever perpetrated on a nation."

NATIONAL UNITY AND WELFARE MUST COME BEFORE NARROW POLITICAL ADVANTAGE. Divide-and-rule policies have no place in framing the basis for peace-time government. Only a party that will recognize equality of opportunity for all in time of peace as well as equality of service and sacrifice in time of war can solve the problem of national unity with the confidence of all Canadians.
