UNION

Union Presbyterian Church celebrated the 112th anniversary services on Sunday last, May 27th. Rev. A. N. Miller, M.A., B.D., of Brampton, was the minister for the occasion, and preached two very appropriate and thought-provoking sermons. In the morning Mr. Miller outlined briefly the turbulent state existing through the entire world—politically and economically. He took texts from the books of Jeremiah and Isaiah reminding his audience that the prophets warned the people then as now that Peace can only come through righteousness.

In the evening Mr. Miller preached especially to the young people, but his remarks were suitable for all. His sermon was based on the parable of the Ten Virgins. He pointed out that the wise virgins were prepared for the future and their preparedness consisted of strong character and faith.

Mr. Wishart Campbell, at present director of music at OPRB, was the guest soloist and he again, as on former occasions, more than delighted his listeners. Numbers he sang were exceptionally well interpreted and full of expression. The choir was further assisted by Mrs. Francis Thompson and Mrs. Peter Dick, two former members of Union.

Tall ferns mingled with snapdragons and other early summer flowers, very effectively arranged were used in decoration of the platform. The church was well-filled both morning and evening and all who attended must have felt blessed to have had the privilege of attending two such outstanding services.

Gregory Theatre Packed Two Nights For Spring Revue

It will be to every voter's advantage to check on the list in the post office and determine where they vote next Monday. The federal wards are different than the provincial and many voters will be voting at a different location.

Voters will also note that the polls close at 6 p.m. next Monday.

THE WEATHER

By H. I. Hutt

After what we have had this spring, we think most of us will agree that the old Scotchman who laid down the rule for taking them off in that trite Scotch saying "Ne'er cast a clout till May be out" knew what he was talking about.

Our dear departed friend, the former editor of this paper, gave us timely and reliable advice along this line every spring. We trust his successor and his able lady assistant will continue the tradition, for what good is a local paper if it does not help us out in such personal matters?

Judging by what took place last Monday in Ontario we are looking forward to another Liberal snowstorm over all of Canada next Monday, after which we hope to be able to take 'em off and set out our tomato plants.

Now that we have all the records for May we find that while March made an all time record for heat, May temperature was 47.8 which is 4.9 degrees below normal, and the rainfall was 5.58 inches, which was 2.92 over the normal of 2.66 inches.

Following are the figures for last week:

Date	H. & L. Temp.	Rain-fall
Tues., May 29	76 43
Wed., May 30	58 35	28"
Thurs., May 31	63 36
Fri., June 1	47 35
Sat., June 2	47 39
Sun., June 3	49 42	15"
Mon., June 4	51 34	11"

Legion Notes

We are sorry to hear that Comrade Fred Yates is a patient in the Toronto General Hospital and all comrades of the local branch hope soon to hear of his complete recovery.

Comrade Bill Hadley, who has been on the sick list for the past month is back in the club rooms, and although not feeling up to the mark, is able to be around.

Comrade J. Mackie, who has been a patient at Christie St. Hospital for the past five months was at the Legion last week. Comrade Mackie is looking better and is convalescing at his home in Terra Cotta.

The regular meeting of Branch 120 Canadian Legion was held last Thursday evening. Comrade Chapman, president of the Branch, deserves great credit for the efficient manner in which he performed his duties. With the full cooperation of the members, the meeting was started sharp at 8:15 p.m. and all business transacted and the meeting was over by 9:45 p.m.

Chairman Sam Tennant of the Entertainment Committee, held open house last Friday to Legion members and comrades, and members of the Ladies' Auxiliary, to a mixed party in the Legion Hall. After welcoming the guests, Chairman Tennant turned over the proceedings of the evening to Comrade Jimmy Murphy who introduced President Chapman to the gathering. In a few well-chosen words President Chapman extended a hearty welcome to all present on behalf of the Legion.

The Rhythm Rubes Orchestra opened the program, followed by the introduction of Lieut. Russell Freestone, recently returned from overseas. Lieut. Freestone consented to sing a vocal solo and rendered a few witty stories which were well received by the audience.

On the program also were Mr. and Mrs. Ches. Day, who sang a duet; Mr. Andy Dewhurst, vocal solo; Sgt. Major Carney, vocal solo, and Comrade Bill Morrow accompanied at the piano.

A feature attraction was the specialty performed by Mr. B. Carhart, a new member of the Rhythm Rubes Orchestra, with trick violin playing which was enjoyed by all present. Mr. Carhart has been featured on many radio stations in and around the city of Calgary, Alberta, and is capable of playing many instruments. His banjo and his violin playing with the orchestra, as well as his violin-playing for the square dances was well received by all present.

A delightful lunch was served by Messdames Tennant, Kershead, Kidd and Collins, and the party broke up early Saturday morning with the singing of the National Anthem.—J.M.

The Grand Spring Revue by the pupils of the Gertrude Cain School of Dancing held two evenings, May 28 and June 4, in the Gregory Theatre, provided top-notch entertainment for a full house both nights. There were tap-dancing, ballet numbers, toe dancing and vocal numbers. The costuming was lovely and the way in which even tiny tots performed was excellent. It was hard to single out any one number for special mention, but a chorus number entitled "Wedding of the Painted Doll" was charming. The bride was Jacqueline Graham, the minister, Charlene Davis, and the groom, Martin Armstrong. The four bridesmaids were Sue Crabtree, Beverly Hyde, Joyce Denham, and Yvonne Hendry. Mary Barber took the part of Red Riding Hood, Marjorie McNeil was Buster Brown, Betty Lou Davis the Jack-in-the-Box, Sandra Scott was Bo Beep and the dolls were Carol Benham, Judy McCumber, Lynn Treleven, Norma Murray, Colleen Todd and Paul Cunningham.

"Hawaiian Dance," a number in which Miss Jean Blair sang and Dianne Hillock danced the solo parts as especially good. The patriotic finale in which the three services, Uncle Sam, Rule Britannia and the Union Jack appeared, was outstanding and a fitting conclusion to the entertainment.

H. O. McClure was the capable master-of-ceremonies on the 28th, and John D. Kelly the genial chairman on June 4th. Irene Mitchell May was pianist for both evenings.

Dance solos were performed by Carol Benham, Judy McCumber, Barbara Allen, Norma Murray, Lynn Treleven, Marlene Budd, Dianne Hillock, Eleanor Smith and Freddie Warnes. Those from Georgetown who also performed were: Arlene Reave, Betty Willson, Colleen Todd, Joan Oummins, Paul Cunningham, Charlene Davis, Betty Lou Davis, Jocelyn Graham, Mary Barber, Joyce Denham, Patricia Day, Marjorie McNeil, Sue Crabtree, Yvonne Henry, Sandra Scott, Beverly Hyde, Ann Proctor, Glennia Doherty, Martin Armstrong, Evelyn Smith, Ann Crabtree, Doreen Hornby, Joan Doherty, Shirley Doherty, Barbara Boyle, Jean Colman, Dolores Herrington, June Bouskill.

Gertrude Cain School of Dancing pupils from Brampton also took part in the Revue and included the following soloists: Hazel Reid, Frances Caruso, Donna Burrows, Diana Molard, Jacqueline Gold, Betty and Geraldine Clardie. Brampton choristers were: Cheravine Burt, Muriel Sutton, Irene Leeman, Sheila Dellow, Janet Hoare, Helen Mullis, Gwyn Geogon, Geraldine Caruso, Helen Finn, Ella Mae Moore, Ethel Burt, Ruth Tribble, Helen Lyons, Karen Wolfe, Vera Moore, Betty Grieg, Jean Waller, Dorothy Kirk, Carol Marsden.

Guest artists added further talent to the show and included: vocalists, Joan Blair, Harry Haie, Geraldine Kendall and Larry Kendall. Miss Gertrude Cain also did a toe ballet and tap dance with Harry Haie.

At the conclusion of the program, Lynn Treleven presented flowers to Miss Cain and Norma Murray presented a bouquet to the pianist, Mrs. Irene Mitchell May.

The Spring Revue will be presented in Brampton on June 12th.

ALLAN NICHOLSON AND STAN HALL ADDRESS PUBLIC MEETING

Wednesday evening, May 30th, was the occasion of a well-attended public meeting in the Rose Room, sponsored by the Progressive Conservative Associations of Georgetown. Guest speakers were Mr. Allan Nicholson, Federal candidate, Mr. Stan Hall, Provincial candidate, and Mr. Bert Merson, popular Canadian labour leader. As Georgetown is Halton County's most highly industrialized town, it was thought that Bert Merson's presence would be particularly valuable in giving the industrial workers an idea of the Progressive Conservative platform for labour. He said, in the course of his address, that the principal issue confronting the voters in the two current elections is not merely WHO is going to govern, but HOW we are going to be governed.

Miss Sybil Bennett, who was in the chair stressed the importance of the women's vote and gave an enthusiastic welcome to the many ladies in the audience.

By all present.

A delightful lunch was served by Messdames Tennant, Kershead, Kidd and Collins, and the party broke up early Saturday morning with the singing of the National Anthem.—J.M.
