THE SICK CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL CAMPAIGN IS ON

More Georgetown Servicemen Arrive Home For Dominion Day

Georgetown servicemen are coming home in greater and greater numbers and Dominion Day saw seven more local boys back home in the persons of Lieut. Paul Barber, L/Cpl. Fred Harrison, and Ptes. Bill Chaplin, Walker Cleave, Francis Golden, Bruce McCartney and E. A. Hill. Earlier in the week, Dvr. J. W. E. Davidson arrived at his home on the Glen Road, while Flying Officer Jim Kelly reached Canada last Thursday and is now reunited with his wife in Winnipeg.

Lt. Paul Barber
A veteran of four years service is Lt. Paul Barber, M.M., who won his military medal for gallantry at Ortona. Enlisting in July, 1940, with the 48th Highlanders, he later transferred to the Armoured Corps and went overseas on June 17, 1941. He was with the first Canadian troops in Sicily and among the many fine souvenirs he has sent home is a coat made for him by an old Sicilian tailor. L/Cpl. Harrison was the first Allied soldier the Sicilian had seen and the gift was in gratitude for their liberation. A veteran of the Sicilian and Italian campaigns, he has since seen action in France, Holland and Germany, and took part in the victory parade in Prague, Czecho-Slovakia. L/Cpl. Harrison was met in Toronto by his two children, Diane and Freddie, then hurried to Toronto General Hospital where his wife, formerly Bessie Walker, is recuperating from a serious operation.

Pte. Walker Cleave
Another veteran of the Italian campaign is Pte. Walker Cleave, who is spending a month's leave with his mother, Mrs. Isobel Cleave at their home on Emery Street. Walker just missed a reunion with his brother, L/Sgt. Franklin Cleave, who has been home on leave, but is back on duty with a minesweeper of the Atlantic fleet. Pte. Cleave was employed at C. J. Buck's store prior to enlistment in July, 1942. He trained at Guelph and Camp Borden and went overseas as a cook with the RCAF in August, 1943. He went to Italy with the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment, and moved with the regiment to France, Holland and Germany.

Pte. Bruce McCartney
Pte. Bruce McCartney, one of Georgetown's youngest soldiers overseas, enlisted in October, 1943, prior to his 18th birthday, and had previously been a member of the local Lorne Scots Regiment since he was a lad of 16. Training in Portsmouth, Camp Borden and Debert, he embarked in England last Christmas day. He was with the Toronto Scottish in Belgium, Holland and Germany. Prior to enlistment he was employed with Smith & Stone Ltd. Bruce is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McCartney. His father, who is deputy Zone Commander of the Canadian Legion, is a veteran of four years service overseas in the last war with the 58th Battalion. Pte. McCartney has enlisted for service in the Pacific and will spend a month's leave at home prior to leaving for advanced training.

F.O. Jim Kelly
Returning from service overseas with the RCAF for the second time is F.O. J. D. Kelly, who arrived in Canada last Thursday and is now with his wife in Winnipeg. F.O. Kelly expects to be home in Georgetown within the next week or two. Enlisting in March, 1941 he trained in Toronto, Oshawa, Windsor, Dafoe Sask., and Trenton in wireless work and went overseas in 1943. Shot down on a raid over Cambrai, France, on June thirteenth, 1944, he was in hiding with the French underground until a thrilling rescue by a British plane on Sept. 8th. He spent a month's leave in Canada last October and returned for further service overseas the following month. He was with a bomber crew in raids over Berlin and later was engaged in dropping food supplies to liberated areas. His younger brother, William, graduates this weekend as a second lieutenant from Brockville O. T. C., where he ranked second in his class.

Lieut. Paul Barber
Son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barber and husband of the former Ruth McNally, Lieut. Paul Barber was among the happy group of homecomers on Dominion Day. Paul was one of four officer members of the Barber family who went overseas with the Lorne Scots Regiment in June, 1941. Since last Christmas he has been a member of the Queen's Own Rifles and has seen action on the continent in Holland, Belgium and Germany. Prior to enlistment, Lieut. Barber was employed with Provincial Paper Ltd. A brother, Norman, is overseas with the

THE WEATHER

By H. L. Hult
Now that we are into July and have all the figures for the month of June, we find that while night temperatures for the month were about normal 50.3 degrees, day temperatures were 63.4 or 4.4 degrees below normal, making it a rather cool month. The rainfall was 3.71 or nearly a quarter of an inch above normal. Summer is now off to a good start, with plenty of moisture for growing crops, and farmers are getting ideal weather for haying.

Following are the records for the past week.

Date	H. and L.	No rain
Tues., June 26	78 56	fall
Wed., June 27	78 46
Thurs., June 28	84 60
Fri., June 29	89 64

HUGE CROWD ENJOYS GLEN GARDEN PARTY

A crowd of well over 1000 enjoyed a garden party and street dance in Glen Williams last Friday night. After a day which threatened rain, the weatherman smiled and it was a lovely evening for the event, which was held near the Post Office.

Chairman for the garden party program was E. V. MacCormack of Georgetown. The program included a group of the Gertrude Cain dancers, with Irene Mitchell May as accompanist, comedy by Harry Hale and vocal selections by John Wagstaffe. Georgetown Girls Pipe Band were also present and played several selections for the enjoyment of the gathering.

Those in charge of arrangements included Mrs. J. R. Williams, entertainment; Mrs. Jack Crawford, booths; Mrs. W. Hadley, lucky draw. The street dance, which featured Fisher's Orchestra, was in charge of Tom Hill and Jack Addy. Roy Norton was in charge of games.

Lucky draw winners were: Mrs. John Wheeler, Sr., lamp; Mrs. Sutcliffe, knitting bag; Chris Frank, cushion. The committee were most appreciative of the kind offer of the Blyth Construction Co. for putting at their disposal lumber and equipment which helped to accommodate the crowds.

Total proceeds go to the Beaumont Parcel Fund and will be used to provide a welcome home for Glen Williams servicemen returning from overseas.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mrs. Mary E. J. Harris wish to extend their heartfelt thanks and appreciation to the many friends and neighbours for the acts of kindness, messages of sympathy and beautiful floral tributes received during our recent sad bereavement in the loss of our beloved mother.

Canadian Army Show and his brother Lieut. Keith Barber is in England with the Lorne Scots. Another brother, George, who also served with the army has been recently discharged from the forces.

With over five years service overseas to his credit, Pte. J. W. E. Davidson was another veteran who arrived home in Georgetown last week. Pte. Davidson has been overseas since March, 1940, and has been with the Army Service Corps in France, Germany, Holland and Belgium. He is one of five members of the family who have served with the forces in this war. His father, Mr. William Davidson, now discharged, was a sergeant instructor with the ROAF, a brother, Cpl. Norman Davidson has been discharged after service overseas, and two brothers are still in the service. Pte. Bob, with the Lincoln and Welland Regt. in Holland, and Pte. Clayton, at Vernon, B. C. Pte. Davidson married the former Margaret Sharkey of Edinburgh Scotland, four years ago, and she is living in Edinburgh with their two children, Norman and Robert.

Pte. Frank Golden
Pte. Frank J. Golden, who completed five years of army service on July 1st, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Golden and will spend a month's leave in town with his parents. He went overseas three years ago with the Irish Regiment and has served in Italy, Belgium and Holland. Pte. Golden has enlisted for the Pacific and will report for training at end of his leave.

Shortill-Taylor Wedding in Guelph

On Saturday afternoon, June 30th, at 4 o'clock, Ruth Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor, Guelph, became the bride of Fred Shortill, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Shortill. Rev. Aitken, of Chalmers United Church, Guelph, officiated at the ceremony, which was performed at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Doris Harding played the wedding music and sang "The Sunshine of Your Smile".

The bride chose an attractive blue and white crepe ensemble with white accessories and corsage of pink roses. Her sister, Miss Olive Taylor, was bridesmaid, and wore a rose dress with matching hat and corsage of pink roses. The groom's brother, Mr. R. B. Shortill, of Georgetown, was best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Guelph Y.M.C.A., where Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and the wedding party received the guests. There were 43 guests present. After a wedding trip to Stratford and Niagara Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Shortill will live on the groom's farm in Erin Township.

Guests from this district included: Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor and son from Bradford; Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor and daughter, of Kitchener; Mr. and Mrs. Wilf. Harding and Doris; Mr. and Mrs. John Cole, Ballinfad. Guests were also present from Guelph, London, Mosboro and the West.

William Huffman and Leona Smith Wed at St. George's Church

With Ven. W. G. O. Thompson officiating at the ceremony, the wedding took place at St. George's Church of England on Thursday afternoon, June 28th, at three o'clock, of Leona Marion Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil E. Smith of Stewartstown, and William Kay Huffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Huffman.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a turquoise suit with white accessories and a corsage of deep rose carnations. Her only attendant was her sister, Eleanor, who wore a purple suit with white accessories, and a corsage of pink carnations. Mr. Charles Crawford was groomsmen.

The young couple left for a honeymoon trip to Buffalo and Jamestown, N. Y., returning along Lake Erie and through Niagara Falls. They will take up residence in Georgetown.

LOUTH—GILCHRIST WEDDING

A quiet wedding took place on Saturday afternoon, June 30th, at the United Church Parsonage, Rev. R. C. Todd, B.A., officiating, when Edna Dorothy, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Louth, of Georgetown, became the bride of Wilfred James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilchrist, Brampton. The bride was attired in a street-length pale blue silk jersey dress, with white accessories, and she wore a corsage of red roses. Her cousin, Miss Verna Louth, Glen Williams, was bridesmaid, gowned in a street-length dress of rose silk jersey with white accessories, and she wore a corsage of pale pink carnations. The groomsmen were Mr. Stewart McBretny, of Brampton.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents. Mrs. Gilchrist was gowned in Alice Blue sheer dress, wearing a corsage of red roses. The happy couple left later for Orillia and other points and on their return they will reside in Brampton.

NORVAL BOYS, PRISONERS-OF-WAR, ARRIVED HOME

Pte. Gordon Browne, son of Mrs. W. G. M. Browne and the late Mr. Browne, of Norval, and Pte. Ormie (Bud) Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Carter, Toronto, and formerly of Norval, arrived home together on Monday afternoon after spending a year in the same Nazi prison camp. The boys came over together on the same ship, and it was a real coincidence that Gord and Bud, friends together in Norval, yet serving in altogether different regiments overseas, should find themselves together in the same prison camp, in fact their prison stalls were right next to each other.

Pte. Browne was a prisoner of war for a year. He served with the Seaforth Highlanders and was missing for three months before his mother received word that he was a prisoner-of-war. He said they most certainly would have starved had it not been for the Red Cross parcels. Gord enlisted in July, 1942, and prior to that ran his father's mail mill at Norval.

Brandford — Lorrman Wedding

A pretty wedding was solemnized quietly in St. George's Church of England at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, when Amelia, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lorrman, became the bride of Pte. Lewis Brandford, Camp Borden, third son of Mr. and Mrs. George Brandford, Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson officiated at the ceremony.

The bride wore a street-length dress of white crepe, white hat with shoulder length veil and white accessories. Her corsage was of red roses. Mrs. Henry Lorrman was matron-of-honour in a flowered silk jersey frock, with green accessories and corsage of pink carnations. Mr. Henry Lorrman was groomsmen.

CELEBRATED GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Schoales, 61 Golfview Ave., Toronto, celebrated their golden wedding June 15th with an informal reception attended by many friends and relatives, including two brothers of Mrs. Schoales— Mr. H. Smethurst of Acton and Mr. R. G. Smethurst of Vancouver, B.C.; also present were two nieces, Miss Margaret E. Smethurst of Sudbury and Mrs. A. J. H. Smethurst of Barrie, Mrs. H. Smethurst of Acton and Mrs. A. J. Smethurst of Limehouse, poured tea, assisted by Mrs. R. Robinson and Mrs. R. Blackwood.

Fifty golden roses provided a lovely background for the anniversary cake made by Mrs. C. A. Grant, a niece of Mrs. Schoales. Many bouquets and gifts, including a purse of money from immediate relatives, were received by the honoured couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Schoales have one daughter, Mrs. M. Patterson, who assisted in receiving the guests, also four granddaughters. Their only son, Joseph H., gave his life in World War I at the age of 19.

The Schoales family came to Canada from England and lived in Stewarttown for some years, moving to Toronto thirty-five years ago. Mrs. Schoales is a sister of the late A. J. Smethurst of Limehouse.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Schoales from friends in this district.

United Church Sunday School Picnic at Stanley Park, Erin

On Thursday afternoon, June 28, about 120 members of the United Church Sunday School and 60 adults took advantage of the ideal weather to enjoy the annual Sunday school picnic at Stanley Park, Erin. The transportation arrangements were ably handled by Howard Lillio and E. L. Arnold, and Ar. Scott very kindly offered the use of one of his buses to assist in the transportation of the children.

Swimming and boating were enjoyed to the full during the early part of the afternoon, after which a full sports program was carried out under the sponsorship of Miss M. Campbell. At 5:30 the children sat down to enjoy in their usual hearty manner the picnic supper. Refreshment arrangements were convayed by Mrs. H. Clarke assisted by a very capable committee. During the supper hour, Miss McCumber's Class was presented with a watermelon in recognition of their attendance record at Sunday School.

The picnic was concluded after supper with swimming and softball. Of particular interest was a game between two teams selected from the intermediate boys. The results of the various athletic events were as follows: Swimming races—Boys under 12 — Burns and Spence; girls under 12 — J. Dobbie; open race—Junior Grace, Shirley Watkins.

Track races—Miss Lyons Class—1st Doug Richardson, 2nd M. Bird; 3rd Bobby Bryden.
