A welcome home party for Piper Robert McVey was held at S. S. No. 9 on Friday evening.

About twenty-five friends of Mr. Wm. Millere, Sr., helped him celebrate his seventy-fifth birthday at his home on the evening of June 26. Progressive euchre was played, Mrs. John Crawford and John Nickell winning first prizes. After a sumptuous lunch Mr. Millere opened his gifts and received the good wishes of all, personally thanking the givers. In spite of his advanced age he is a regular workman, employed at Victory Aircraft, Malton, and tends his own well-kept garden at home. Those from a distance attending his birthday party included his son, George Millere of Toledo, Ohio; a niece, Mrs. Jas. Leonard, of Hamilton, and son William and Mrs. Millere, of Georgetown.

There was a large attendance at Mr. J. McBride's sale on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Frank Petch, Georgetown's hustling auctioneer wielded the stick in his usual good natured style, and good prices were realized.

The county road men have given our main street a heavy coat of tar, which will be a great help to keep down the dust nuisance.

Miss Laughton has given the roof of her house a nice coat of paint and many other renovations which also add considerably to its appearance.

Miss Sarah Lyons and Mrs. B. Young have gone on an extended trip to the West. We wish them a very pleasant trip and safe return.

Haying is now the general order of the day, and is a bumper crop.

ASHGROVE

A very enjoyable picnic was held last Thursday afternoon at Hungry Hollow for the pupils of Ashgrove school. There was a good attendance of the children and their mothers. The afternoon was spent in games, contests and swimming, after which all enjoyed a delicious lunch. We wish Miss Kean and her pupils a very happy holiday.

A large gathering of friends and neighbours met at the home of Mrs. Percy Leslie last Saturday afternoon to honour Miss Mary Alexander, whose marriage is to take place shortly. A short program was given, during which Mrs. Thos. Giffen contributed an appropriate and interesting reading; Mrs. Francis Thompson favoured with lovely vocal solos, and Mrs. Cromar gave humorous recitations. Following the program the many beautiful shower gifts were opened by the bride-to-be. Misses Betty Ruddell, Elsie Bird and Mrs. J. Ismond assisted the hostess in serving a delicious lunch.

The annual gathering of the McCullough family took place Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wilson, in honour of Mrs. McCullough's birthday. Thirty-nine members of the family were present for this pleasant occasion, but it was regrettable that Miss Charlotte McCullough was unable to be present.

CAPT. ATHOLE STEWART RETURNED FROM OVERSEAS ON LETITIA

Son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Malcolm Stewart, of Wildwood, Capt. Athole O. Stewart returned from service overseas on the Letitia a week ago. Veteran of five years' army service, he has been overseas for three and half years with the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Highlanders. Landing in Normandy on D Day, he led one of two companies entering Caen. Twice wounded, he was invalided home after a serious illness which hospitalized him for some time.

Capt. Stewart's wife, the former Virginia G. Selkirk, and their baby son, Alan Brock, live in Toronto, where Capt. Stewart is at present spending a leave with them. His elder brother, Capt. Eric M. Stewart, is in Germany with the R.C.E.
