LOCAL NEWS

—Has Madame Sherrit read your teacup or cards? She will be at "Reta's" all summer. Phone 230 for appointment.

—Harvest supplies, forks, files, sharpening stones, machine oil, oil cans, rope in all sizes, binder twine, 100 lb. $8.25, electric fences complete $11.00, fly spray per gallon $1.25. —Blain's Hardware and 5c to $1.00 store, Phone 104, Brampton.

—Afternoon tea at Mrs. S. Norrie's (formerly the Nixon home) on Saturday, July 28, 3 to 6 p.m. auspices of Limehouse W.I. Admission 25c.

—The annual convention of the Firemen's Association of Ontario will be held this year at Merriton, August 4th to 6th. A number of delegates and life members will attend from Georgetown.

—Don't miss the Nortonville-Norval Lacrosse game at Norval next Tuesday, July 31st.

—The Local Council of Women wish to announce that the Wading Pool on James Street is now open for small children only. There will be supervision from 7 p.m. to 5 p.m. Parents please note that children attending at other periods do so at their own risk.

—One of the big attractions at the Fall Fair this year on Sept. 7 and 8 will be the Grand Midway Attractions which includes four rides and twenty concessions—direct from one of Ontario's famous summer beaches.

—On Saturday afternoon the girls of St. Alban's Sunday School, their teachers and mothers, enjoyed a picnic at H. F. Beaumont's farm.

—Fire completely destroyed the beautiful Beaumaris summer hotel in Muskoka early last Sunday morning. Guests all escaped without injury, but many lost their personal belongings. Among the Toronto guests registered were Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Lawrence, former Georgetown residents.

—The Herald "weather man," Prof. H. L. Hutt, was the subject of some flattering remarks last Sunday morning over the CBC network when Bob Keith, the "Ontario Gardener," spoke on iris. Mr. Keith has visited Mr. Hutt on several occasions and is an admirer of the Hutt flowers.

—The Herald extends birthday congratulations to Mr. Seymour Penson, who celebrated his 84th birthday yesterday. Mr. Penson is, we are happy to say, in good health and enjoys life to the full.
