L. S. Ronald Mendham Weds Nova Scotia Girl

On Monday, July 30th, a quiet but pretty wedding in St. Boniface Anglican Church, Blandford, N.S., united in marriage Leading Seaman Ronald Mendham, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mendham, Georgetown, and Phoebe Doris Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Gates, of Blandford, N.S. The Rev. Clark, rector of St. Boniface, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride was lovely in a white sheer street-length dress with plain white hat and shoulder-length veil. She wore a corsage of dark red roses. Miss Hilda Gates, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid in a rose silk jersey dress, matching hat and corsage of white roses. Mr. Ira Gates, brother of the bride, was best man.

Eighty guests were present at the wedding reception held at the farm home of the bride's parents. After a short wedding trip to Chester, the bride and groom came to visit the groom's parents in Georgetown, and are now spending a week at Balm Beach. The groom is on a 30-day Pacific leave from the Navy. Following his leave he will report to his post at "Cornwallis," N.S.

Prior to her marriage, fellow members of the Blandford Post Office staff held a kitchen shower for the bride, at which she was also presented with an original painting of the country surrounding her home, by the well-known Canadian artist Chesapeake.

JOHN SNOW AND BETTY MacCASKILL WED AT KIRKSHILL

The United Church, Kirkhill, Ontario, was the scene of a lovely wedding on Saturday, August 4th, when Betty Inobel, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth MacCaskill, Glen Sandfield, became the bride of John Ellwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Snow, of Georgetown. The church was beautifully decorated with summer flowers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. E. H. Gray.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white brocaded celanese organza, over satin, with full skirt, fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, and long sleeves. Her fingerly veil was held by tiny satin bows. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas and baby's breath with satin streamers knotted with sweet peas. She also wore a pendant and matching earrings, gifts of the groom. The bride's gift to the groom was a gold signet ring.

Miss Mora MacCaskill, sister of the bride, was maid of honour. She wore a gown of brocaded celanese organza over green taffeta. Miss Lydia Snow, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. Her gown was of brocaded celanese organza over pink taffeta. Their shoulder-length veils were held by matching flowers and their corsages were of snapdragons.

Mr. Clarence Snow, brother of the groom, was groomsman. The ushers were Messrs. Alexander and Fraser MacLeod, cousins of the bride. During the signing of the register, Mrs. J. P. MacLeod sang "O Promise Me." The wedding music was played by Mrs. Clarence MacMillan.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The guests were received by the bride's mother who wore a green figured dress with corsage of dwarf zinnias and baby's breath. Mrs. Snow, mother of the groom, also received, wearing a blue dress and corsage of snapdragons. Later the happy young couple left on a motor trip, the bride wearing a brown printed jersey dress with brown accessories.

MRS. ROY HARROP DIED IN BRAMPTON

A life-long resident of the Norval district until moving to Brampton two years ago, Mrs. Roy S. Harrop died in Peel Memorial Hospital on Sunday, August 5th, after a two weeks' illness. Formerly Ada Myrl Early, she was a daughter of Thomas Early and Jane Storey Early.

A member of Norval Presbyterian Church, she was an active member of the Women's Missionary Society and the Woman's Association, and was also a member of Norval Women's Institute.

Besides her husband she is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Edgar Thatcher, Guelph, Mrs. Frank Pendley, Norval, and Miss Sarah Early, Vancouver, and three brothers, Spencer of Saskatoon, Harold and Chester, of Norval.

The funeral was held from the Brampton Funeral Service, with Rev. J. L. Self conducting the service. Interment was in Norval cemetery. Pallbearers were George Brownlee, John Early, Guy Wilson, Douglas Ismond, David Wiggins and Bert Gilbert. Nephews and cousins were flower bearers.

AN OPPORTUNITY

One of the Nation's largest companies, catering principally to farmers' needs, is ready to place a valuable contract which should mean complete independence for a man fortunate enough to have the following qualifications — character record that will withstand investigation and proven ability to efficiently manage both himself and his own business. Financial status not extremely important but a travel outfit is necessary. Write The J. R. Watkins Company, Dept. G-5, — 2177 Mason St., Montreal.
