Legion Notes

With the affairs of the Legion capably looked after by your executive during the past few months, regular meetings will once more get under way the latter part of this month. Due to increasing membership in the Branch it is plainly witnessed by our older members that present quarters are somewhat small, and more accommodation is needed. No doubt this will be one of the important items to be discussed at our next general meeting and it is the duty of all members to be present. Watch bulletin board for date.

We are glad to report that Comrades Jimmy Murphy and Percy Clark who were on the sick list are again enjoying good health and are back in the club rooms.

The Ladies' Auxiliary celebrated their 17th birthday with a chicken dinner held in the Legion Hall last Friday evening. Five of the original charter members were present: Mrs. T. Grieve, Mrs. W. Roney, Mrs. Henry Shepherd, Mrs. L. Roney and Mrs. Fred McCartney. Fifty three members were present and on the invitation of the President, Mrs. Fred Brailby, all former presidents of the Auxiliary, addressed the gathering. These were Mrs. T. Grieve, Mrs. L. Roney, Mrs. W. Hadley, Mrs. J. Kemshead and Mrs. C. Stacey. After the supper games and dancing were enjoyed.

The Corn Roast
The heavy rain of last Friday surely did not dampen the spirit of the 83 members who attended the annual corn roast. Earlier plans to have this event outdoors had to be cancelled due to the weather and with the kind permission of Major Harold McClure, the event took place in the Armouries. Comrade Sam Tennant deserves congratulations from all members for the great success of the evening.
Comrade President S. P. Chapman opened the proceedings, followed by a sing-song. Deputy Zone Commander "Dutch" McCartney introduced Mayor Cleave, honorary president, who addressed the gathering and Comrade W. Roney introduced Mr. L. E. Fleck, also an honorary president of the Branch. Both these speakers congratulated the local branch on the work they have accomplished in the past and wished them success in the future.

Opl. Eddie Francis, a member of the branch, spoke very favourably of the work done by the Canadian Legion, both overseas and in Canada, and made an appeal to all returned men from this war to join the ranks of the Legion.

Comrade S.M. Wm. Carney then took over as toastmaster and a varied program followed. Comrade Harry Watkins favoured with a dance; songs were given by Comrades Alex. Taylor, SQMS Henry Shepherd, M.B.E., Pat Cullen, Wm. Carney, Charles Day, Sam Glsby and others. Credit is due to all those who when called upon favoured with a solo. All members greatly appreciated the talent, and the highlight of the evening was "Mother Machree" and "Danny Boy" sung by Comrade Pat Cullen.
were served by Comrades Carney, Day, Murphy, Herney and Hadley. Comrade Carney assisted by Comrade Johnny Oliver "chief cook" did a great job of preparing the armoures for the occasion.
Comrade Dick Mitchell gave freely of his accordion music and was assisted by Comrade J. Kayne as the rhythm spoon expert. In all it was a grand evening and was greatly enjoyed by all Legion members. So comrades "hats off" to Sammy for the wonderful evening.—J.B.
