IN GREECE; some have shoes. But for every one who has, six go barefoot.

IN BELGIUM, a family has one shirt—eight of them share it.

IN POLAND, a little girl boasts about her dress, but it has been patched in 50 places.

IN HOLLAND, children forage for food in garbage pails and sleep in cellars.

IN JUGOSLAVIA, one out of every six people has tuberculosis.

IN JUGOSLAVIA, half a million children wander the streets wrapped in newspapers; 4 families are living in one small cold room. At night, they all huddle beneath a single blanket for warmth. To these people, the loss of a tattered dress or a worn shoe is a major catastrophe.

Knitted caps, woolen wraps, Shawls and smocks, and heavy socks, Low-heeled shoes, if you have spares, Have them mated, tied in pairs; Dresses, work-clothes, coveralls, Robes, pyjamas, sweaters, skirts, Top-coats, jackets, suits and shirts; Infant's garments, bedding, place goods, All of these are your "lend-lease" goods; So start collecting—make your rounds For MILLIONS OF POUNDS!
