LOCAL NEWS

—The weatherman may say that it's fall, but that didn't stop a pear tree at the home of the Misses Young, Main Street, blossoming last week.

—Miss Joyce McMillan won the lady driving class at Erin Fair on Monday in a strong class, and her mother, Mrs. K. C. McMillan placed fifth.

—Georgetown Women's Institute will hold a euchar in the Oddfellows' Hall on Thursday, October 18th, at 8:30. Good prizes and door prize. Admission 25c.

—An egg brought to the Herald Office last week by Mr. E. Vivian measured 6 1/2 inches in circumference at the centre and 8 1/2 inches from end to end.

—Euchar Marathon in the Glen town Hall, commencing on Thursday, Oct. 11, 8:15 sharp, to run for four weeks. Good prizes and lucky prize weekly. Information: Phone 113 r 14.

—Better send your names in for the Rebekah Marathon euchar, commencing Thursday evening, Nov. 8th, to run for four consecutive nights. Phone 106 or 197.

—National Clothing Collection Donors who find it difficult to convey their contribution of clothing to the town hall may notify either Rev. C. C. Cochrane or Mrs. Harold Cleave and the parcel will be called for.

—Due to the wet grounds and race track, the Woodbridge Fair was postponed from Thanksgiving Day to Oct. 20th. The hall exhibits, poultry and sheep were judged and on display, but the races and other events held over until the later date.

—It was announced over the public address system at Erin fair that Monday's attendance was the largest they had ever had at Erin fall fair. It was a fine all-round show, and the rather cool weather did not hamper the enthusiasm of fair goers. The showing of carriage and road horses was good, but we believe Georgetown fair had a better show and more horses in these classes. The Yorkshire swine show was outstanding as was also the exhibit of cattle. The hall exhibit was the best of any fair this season.

—Renewing his Herald subscription, Rev. S. R. Colebrook of St. Catharines wishes to be remembered to his friends in the Norval, Stewarttown and Hornby parishes where he was formerly Anglican rector. "I enjoy the Herald," he writes, "and always scan it first for the latest news of Georgetown and district, before attending to the other mail. I appreciated the way in which you published the church notices, and hope there will soon be someone in Norval, Hornby and Stewarttown to start sending them in again."

HORNBY

Visitors from various places spent the week end in Hornby, worshipping with us and enjoying the Thanksgiving festivities.

Mr. Erwin Smith of Parry Sound is working on the Charlie Spock farm for a few weeks.

No improvement is reported in the health of Mr. James Bailey who is in the hospital in Hamilton.

Miss Lois Merry has been attending the Ryerson Beach Summer Camp Reunion, held at the home of Mr. Mann, near Cainsville.

The Bethel United Church Woman's Association and Woman's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. F. Cavannagh on the 8th line on Tuesday, October 2nd. Mrs. A. L. MacNabb conducted the worship period, and Rev. Mr. Hackett of Oakville gave an excellent address on Temperance. Arrangements were made for the W.M.E. Open Sunday to be held on October 21st. At this time the minister, Rev. Fred Ainsworth, who was formerly a missionary in Japan for a number of years, will be the missionary speaker. Mrs. Emmerston Ford closed the meeting with prayer in which she asked all to join. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

The Bethel Y.P.U. met on Friday evening in the Sunday school room of the church, with 38 young people present. The membership contest is showing results. Mrs. Farnery was in charge of the program. A reading was given by Margaret Ford, prayer, Mary Hoey, and the scripture lesson was read by Helen Simpson. Mrs. Ellison Ball gave a valuable paper on "Different Kinds of Members," and also some thoughts on Thanksgiving. Several interesting games had been planned. Refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served. Here is a real live organization, and young people not already associated with a Y.P.U. are advised to attend. The next meeting will be on Oct. 19.

There were good congregations at the churches last Sunday. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed, and the minister gave an address on the meaning of the Communion. At the Hornby United Church there was also a baptism, and reception service for new members. Seven names have already been added to the Church Roll. This is a good time to side with the peace by joining the church.

CARD OF THANKS

—L. Cpl. David Hodge wishes to thank all his friends and the Soldiers' Comforts and other organisations who so kindly sent him cigarettes and parcels while overseas.
