Hours of Work and Vacations with Pay Act, 1944

The Industry and Labour Board which administers The Hours of Work and Vacations with Pay Act, considers, in view of the termination of hostilities and the cancellation of war production, the acute manpower shortage which existed during the war years will be minimized, therefore the postponement as to working hours previously provided shall be cancelled and effective November 1st, 1945, the working hours of an employee in any industrial undertaking shall not exceed forty-eight (48) in the week.

1. Regulation 4 of Ontario Regulations 8/44 is amended by adding thereto the following subregulation:

(1a.) Notwithstanding the provisions of subregulation 1, an employer may adopt one or more overtime work periods in his industrial undertaking between the 1st day of November 1945 and the 31st day of December 1945 without a consent in writing of the Board, but the overtime shall not exceed thirty hours in the aggregate.
