LOCAL NEWS

—Thursday, December 13th, is the date of the High School Commencement at the Gregory Theatre.
 —The Open Meeting of the Bible Society to night (Wed.) at 8 o'clock in the United Church. Speaker—Rev. F. S. Harrington. All welcome
 —Mrs. Collier, holding ticket No. 98 was the lucky winner of a barrel of apples on which lucky number tickets were sold by St. George's W.A.
 —The United Church W.A. is holding a sale of aprons, fancy goods and home baking in the McMillan Store on Saturday, Nov. 24th, beginning at 2 o'clock. Buy your Christmas gifts at this sale.
 —Bobby Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hill, Emery Street, escaped with minor bruises when he ran into the side of a car driven by Mr. Pat Gullon on Main Street last Saturday morning.
 —Don't miss "The Song of Bernadette" at the Gregory Theatre next week. One of the highlights of the year, with a cast headed by Jennifer Jones, Charles Bickford and William Eythe.
 —In the list of wreaths placed at the cenotaph on Memorial Day, which was reported in last week's Herald, mention was not made of one placed by the Georgetown Rehabilitation Council.
 —Bill Bowman, who has been working for some time at the Dale Estate in Brampton, tells us that this year's Christmas crop of roses promises to be the biggest yet and it is estimated that 500,000 will be cut for the holiday season.
 —In last week's account of the Rebekah installation the name of Sis. Ethel Long was omitted from a list of twelve members who were presented with 25-year membership certificates. The name of Sis. Anne Collins as Conductor was also omitted from the officers for next year.
 —A party of district men have returned from a hunting trip to Noelville and were lucky enough to bag three deer. Among those in the party were Chief W. G. Marshall, A. E. Cripps and Harold Campbell, Georgetown; Neil McDonald and Alex. McNeil, Guelph; and Lloyd Lyons and Alan Marshall, Erin.
 —You are invited to attend the First Annual Social and Business Meeting of the Norval Recreational Association at the Parish Hall, Norval, Friday evening, Dec. 7th at 8 o'clock. Cards, movies, dancing, refreshments; election of officers. All welcome. Ladies provide. Admission 25c.
 —Last week was a busy one for Lt.-Col. Gordon Cousens, Georgetown postmaster, who was manager of the Ontario Live Fox Show held at the neighbouring town of Brampton. This show is sponsored by the Ontario Fur Breeders' Association, Inc., and was staged for the entire week of Nov. 12 to 16. Col. Cousens has managed this show for a number of years, and the exhibits grows larger year by year. Mr. T. Grievs and his assistants spent the previous week getting the pens in readiness for the show, which was another unqualified success.

STEWARTTOWN
 (Last Week)
 Esqueing W.I. met last Tuesday evening to pack boxes for the boys overseas. There are still five boys overseas, Jack Jenkinson, Tom Duffey, Charles Douglas, Albert Henderson and John Carmichael. The boxes will be from the Women's Institute and the community.
 Representing Stewarttown and community, Sgt. Major Ken Murray recently returned from overseas, laid a wreath on the cenotaph during the memorial service on Sunday in memory of Pte. Harry Dickenson, Pilot Officer Stanley Goiding, Lt. John Bowman and Pte. John Oliver, who gave their lives overseas.

Stop wearing another woman's corset!
 "Size alone can't determine the right corset for you . . . only your individual measurements can. Turn to Charis . . . the difference is in the construction. ALL your measurements. A Graduate Charis Corsette prescribes your correct form as many as 77 models in a size. No wonder Charis creates every curve of your body, molds your figure into smarter lines."

Mr. Hog Producer!
 You have, NOW, an opportunity to help yourself, but you must do so before TUESDAY NEXT, NOV. 27th, when registration closes, and only to DECEMBER 8th to vote.
 The Halton Hog Producers Committee, the County Federation of Agriculture, the Ontario Control Board, the Department of Agriculture and the Minister of Agriculture have all done their part. IT IS NOW UP TO YOU!
 All you have to do is to drop Mr. Whitlock a line asking him to register you as a Halton Hog Producer and he will mail you a ballot, then mark your ballot and return it to him before December 8th.
 This will cost you the full sum of 2 one cent stamps. But please don't overlook the fact that men in your County have spent considerable sums working on your behalf fighting your battles.
 This plan is merely to legalize your right to a vote in running your own business; it is a purely Democratic method whereby you will sit around a common table with others who handle your product and decide ALL questions pertaining to your Hog Marketing, Processing and Distribution of the product.

RADIO SERVICE
 WE ARE PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE that within a few weeks, we will be opening a RADIO SERVICE DEPT., so that we may service your present set and, assure our customers of satisfaction on all sets purchased from this store.
 This Dept. will be in charge of a graduate radio engineer and we assure all of satisfactory, prompt service.
 Watch your paper for a later announcement.

Birth Notices

HERBERT—To Mr. and Mrs. Norman Herbert (nee Margaret Oliver), at Toronto Western Hospital on Sunday, November 18th, 1945, a son.
 LANGDON—Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. Langdon are pleased to announce the birth of their son, John Brian, at Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton, on Monday, November 19th 1945—a baby brother for Kenneth.

In Memoriam

HUGGINS—In loving memory of Mrs. Wm. Huggins, who passed away Nov. 23rd, 1944.
 What would we give her hand to clasp
 Her patient face to see,
 To hear her voice to see her smile
 As in the days that used to be;
 But some sweet day we'll meet again
 Beyond the toll and strife,
 And clasp her hands once more.
 In Heaven that happy life
 —Sadly missed and ever remembered by her loving son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Warner and family.
 HUGGINS—In loving memory of a dear mother, Mrs. William Huggins who passed away Nov. 23rd, 1944.
 Peacefully sleeping, resting at last,
 The world's weary troubles and trials
 are past,
 In silence she suffered, in patience she bore,
 Till God called here home to suffer no more.
 —Her loving daughters, Mrs. W. Hornby, Mrs. W. Bailey, Mrs. H. Knight and Mrs. H. Shepherd.

ASHGROVE

The anniversary supper and concert which was held last Wednesday evening was well attended. After the busy supper provided by the ladies, a splendid program was given by Mrs. Jack Ruddle, violinist, of Toronto, Miss Marjorie Dawson, soloist, Milton Ladies' Trio of Milton and Miss Beta May, elocutionist.
 Miss Lamey Kean visited in Toronto last week end with her sister, Miss Vera Kean.
 Miss Donna Adams, of Bolton, was a week end guest with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wrigglesworth.
 Pte. Louie Reed of Kingston is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Wingfield.
 Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Graham that their daughter, Mrs. Maurice Dixon will be sailing for home this week. She has been serving as a nurse in England for the past year.

BALLINAFAD

The November meeting of the Mission Circle was held Friday evening at the home of Norma McKechnie. Mrs. Foreman had charge of the Scripture study. Mrs. D. Brown made the topic very interesting. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess.
 We are pleased to know that Jesse McEnery, who has been ill for some time is improving and we wish him a speedy recovery.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Snow are spending a week with friends in Gray County.
 A goodly number from Ballinafad United Church attended anniversary services at the Hill Sunday. Good music was supplied by the choir. The solos by Miss Fowler and Miss McKinnon were much appreciated. Mr. Ainsworth of Ashgrove gave an inspiring address.
 Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Shortill, Mrs. E. McEnery and Mr. Harding Price were guests at the Till-Nodwell wedding Saturday evening in Price's Orphans Presbyterian Church.
 The November meeting of the W.A. of Ballinafad United Church was held at the home of Mrs. John Cole Tuesday afternoon when 17 ladies were present. After the usual devotional exercises in charge of Mrs. Morgan Madill, final plans were made to hold a sale of home made baking at Phillip's sale. The roll call was responded to by showing early photos of those present. This created much interest. The December meeting is to be held at the home of the president, Mrs. J. W. Snow.

TERRA COTTA

Mr. and Mrs. Pall and family have moved into Wm. Norris's house on the mountain.
 Miss Myrtle McCauley of Brampton is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. R. McCauley, who is ill at the present time.
 Miss L. Laughton of Toronto spent the week end at her home here.
 Fall ploughing is now the general order of the day.
 Mr. John Edge and J. McMurphy have opened out a new quarry on Mr. Smithson's property on the Town Line. We wish them every success in their new industry here.
 Mr. Frank Merwick has got his residence shingled which adds considerably to its appearance.
 Mr. R. J. Stringer reports having killed a large mosquito in his residence last week and also firmly believes that enough of them would weigh a pound—oh! Terra Cotta must be a tropical climate. Beat this next!
