LOCAL NEWS

Monday next, December 3rd is election day in Georgetown.

Remember the High School Commencement on Thursday, December 13 at the Gregory Theatre.

No matter how you vote, be sure to cast your ballot next Monday in the Municipal Elections.

Don't miss the Fair Board dance in the Arena next Wednesday night. Modern Aires. Admission 50c. Refreshment booth.

The Women's Institute will hold their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, December 5th at 3 p.m. at the home of Mrs. W. G. Bell. Roll call will be answered by an inexpensive Christmas gift for sale.

Please bring your penny-bags to the meeting in St. George's basement on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 5th at three o'clock. The special speaker will be Very Reverend Dean Craig of Algoma.

An announcement of interest this week is the appointment of two well-known Georgetown men, Jack Armstrong and Charlie Willson, as local representatives for the real estate firm of A. E. LePage & Co. These gentlemen will be pleased to discuss real estate matters with you at any time. See the Directory Column on page 2 for complete information.

You are invited to attend the First Annual Social and Business Meeting of the Norval Recreational Association at the Parish Hall, Norval, Friday evening, Dec. 7th at 8 o'clock. Cards, movies, dancing, refreshments; election of officers. All welcome. Ladies provide. Admission 25c.

The Georgetown Rehabilitation Committee would like to have the names of any returned servicemen or women who are interested in furthering their education through night classes. If there are sufficient to warrant it, the Committee will inquire as to the possibility of opening such classes. Please submit your names before Dec. 15th to H. C. Wrigglesworth, Chairman of Vocational Guidance Committee.

MRS. REG. BLAIR RETURNS TO ENGLAND

After a visit of 13 months in Georgetown with her late husband's family, Mr. and Mrs. James Blair, Mrs. Reg. Blair sailed for England from Montreal on the Manchester Port last Sunday morning, with her little son, James. Her sister-in-law, Miss Jean Blair and Mrs. Herb. Harlow, Sr., accompanied her to Montreal to bid them bon voyage.

Mrs. Blair, the former Nancy White of Sussex, Salt Dean, England came to Georgetown in October, 1944, to make her home until her husband came home from the war. Just before Christmas, the tragic news was received that Pte. Blair had been killed in action in Italy. Mrs. Blair takes home fond memories of her stay in Georgetown, where she has made many friends and is looking forward to a return visit in a few years' time.

DISTRICT LEADER SPEAKS TO RED CROSS EXECUTIVE

At a special meeting of the executive of the Georgetown Branch of the Red Cross Society, Mrs. D. F. Dewar, district leader, was guest speaker. The meeting was held in the Municipal Building on Monday night. In the absence of the president, LeRoy Dale, K.O., Ven. W. G. O. Thompson acted as chairman and introduced Mrs. Dewar to the gathering.

She talked on the post-war program of the Red Cross, one phase of which is a short course in home nursing which will hear more about at a later date. Present activities of the Society will continue at least until next May.

MRS. G. BROWN LEAVES FOR ENGLAND

We regret to report the departure of Mrs. Gordon Brown, for England, where she will make an extended visit. Mrs. Brown will sail on the "Empress of Scotland", and left Georgetown on Tuesday.

Mrs. Brown has been the representative of the Ontario Humane Society in Georgetown, and her good work in this connection will be greatly missed. Just before word of her boat passage came through, Mrs. Brown had planned an open meeting when the Provincial President of the Ontario Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals would be present to help organize a Humane Society in Georgetown. Mrs. Brown has left his secretary's letter at the Herald Office, where all interested persons will be quite welcome to read it. The letter contains much valuable information with regard to starting a new branch of the Society.

The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company

ANNOUNCES THE APPOINTMENT OF

as their representative in Georgetown and vicinity.

This is the position formerly held by Mr. John Kingshott, who is now assistant manager in charge of the Brampton district, but who will be still available for any service to Metropolitan policyholders of this community.

Mr. Briggs has recently returned from overseas, where he spent nearly four years as an RCAF pilot, and holds the rank of Flying Officer. He brings to his new position a youthful enthusiasm tempered by his long service experience.
