SMITH & STONE NEWS

Myrtle Warren, Alice Bruce, Doris Lacey and Mrs. Fallster have all returned to work after a bout with of man sickness. Glad to see their smiling faces again.

RECENT PRESENTATIONS

A tri-lite lamp and matching smoke stand, a table lamp, a card table and cash to Muriel Webster and Everett Wilson who were married recently. The Clay Press, Pottery, Shop and Assembly joined hands in observing this occasion.

A tri-lite lamp to Margaret Ritchie of Assembly as a wedding gift. Assembly Room did the honour! A miscellaneous shower for Doris McEellan on the occasion of her wedding. Mrs. May Hicken was hostess.

DOUBLE CAUSE

We omitted to extend our congratulations in our last issue to Mr. and Mrs. B. Wilcox on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary. They were the happiest couple in Georgetown when their son Earl (now in the Punch Press) arrived home from overseas in time to share in the celebration.

GOODBYE WALDO!

Waldo Diggins of the "Punch" left us recently to take up farming in Belleville. Waldo was a member of the Labour Management Committee and such a genial sort of a chap that we are genuinely sorry to see him go. However, we extend our sincere wishes for Waldo's success in his latest venture.

SISTER OF MERCY

Audrey Sharpe, one of our former employees recently left for overseas with a group of V.A.D. workers and is now busily engaged in hospital work in England—and likes it very much too!

EMPLOYEES ON THE SICK LIST

Frank Golden with an injured wrist.
 Gloria Wood with a hand injury.
 Winnie Findlay still "under the weather."
 Harold Gilmer with an attack of appendicitis.

We hope the above guys and gals will soon be back with us again!

MISS MULHOLLAND, R.N.

We are most pleased to welcome the addition to our Staff of Miss Mulholland, R.N. Miss Mulholland has officially taken charge of our newest employee service—the Medical Department.

Miss Mulholland graduated from St. Joseph's School of Nursing in Guelph, Ontario, and later identified herself with the staff of Peel Memorial Hospital in Brampton, Ontario. She joined the RCAF in June, 1941, studied at T.T.S., St. Thomas for five months, then was posted to Gender Bay, Newfoundland, for nine months, and from there she was sent overseas. After serving in England, France, Belgium and Holland she received the Royal Nursing Award at Buckingham Palace in February, 1945, from His Majesty King George. The writer was informed by a friend that His Majesty, going down the long line of nurses who were taking the ceremony so seriously that they all looked very grim, was greeted by a dazzling smile from Miss Mulholland, whereat his face lit up in a huge smile. This story was told to us in a very refreshing manner by little nine-year-old Sylvia Scott of Toronto, who attended the ceremony at the Palace, and we can well believe it since we believe that that same smile will win her many friends and influence many people (without the help of Dale Carnegie). This appointment ushers in a new Employee Service that will be sincerely welcomed by all employees.

Dad is home again!

Christmas candles will burn brighter this year and Christmas turkeys have a new and special flavour for the thousands of Canadians who will be sitting down to their first Christmas dinner with the family circle complete. And many a childish face will glow in the candlelight because "dad" takes his place at the head of the table again — with his strange tales from Italy, from France, Germany or the Pacific.

But even as the candles are lit and the heaped plates go round, Canadians will pause and remember — remember those family groups that will never be complete — those thousands of desolate and homeless in Europe — that great army of children who have been frightened and hurt and starved by a war not of their making.

Let us therefore make a solemn resolve never again to allow the powers of darkness — greed, selfishness and mistrust — to put out the candles of Christmas, those brave lights that symbolize the warm love and kindness that came into the world two thousand years ago.
