LETTER TO THE EDITOR

The Editor,
The Georgetown Herald,
Georgetown, Ontario.

Dear Sir,—
There was an element of poetic justice in the confusion of the last meeting of the 1945 Municipal Council at which a Mr. Albert Reeve (a returned serviceman) made an offer to purchase a lot owned by the corporation. It would have been rather unfortunate if Mr. Reeve's application had come before the new Council at its first meeting, and with no previous opportunity of formulating a plan for the re-settlement of ex-service personnel. The confusion seems to have arisen from the fact that all members of the Council wanted Mr. Reeve to have the lot, but none of them wanted anyone to have anything until the Council had a plan. A precedent, it seems, is like a fire; it is a handy thing to have around for reference, but good people don't set one in public.

Mr. Reeve's offer to purchase reveals the fact that after six months of war and nearly six months of "peace" we still do not know what we want the ex-serviceman to have in addition to a bottle of beer. (Everyone seems unanimous about that.) The Council, of course, is not entirely to blame for the situation; there does not seem to be sufficient agreement among ourselves to warrant action by our municipal representatives.

It will be obvious to the majority of your readers that, in spite of the casualties suffered by Georgetown in battle, considerably more men are coming back here to live than left to go to war. It will be apparent too, that the prospects for a limited expansion of the population (because of industry) are good. If this is true, the value of real estate in terms of dollars will continue to be high for some years to come. Properties which would have sold for $100.00 before the war will be selling for $300.00 and $400.00 for some time yet. For the most part, however, the class of men in whom society professes to be interested is the very class which cannot pay that kind of money, and still build a house.

Now, we are all familiar with the inducements which Councils customarily offer to new industries which plan to establish in a town. Is there any reason, which forbids similar attractive offers being made to ex-service personnel as a mark of appreciation for their sacrifice? Specifically, is there any reason why the Council, (acting, of course, on behalf of a grateful community) should not give these men a suitable lot on which to build a home, for a purely nominal sum? And, in the case of men who own their own homes and live in them, is there any reason why the Council should not proclaim that, as a gesture of appreciation, their property shall be tax-free for a period of three years? And is there any reason why men whose particular needs are not met by either of the above suggestions should not receive something which is likewise within the power of the community to give?

Fertilize the thought, Mr. Editor, that we should greet the living with trifles, and commemorate the dead with another granite monstrosity topped with crosses.

Your truly,

Chas. C. Cochrane

ST. GEORGE'S BABY TEA

Nearly 60 babies, their mothers and in many cases, grandmothers, attended the annual Christmas Party of the Babies' Branch which is connected with St. George's W.A., held last Wednesday afternoon in the Sunday School room.

After a delicious tea served at tables attractively decorated with Christmas motifs, gifts for each wee tot, were handed out from the tree.

Mrs. Saul Dewhurst, secretary of the Babies' Branch, was in charge of the event, assisted by Mesdames S. Groat, Russell, H. Hurley, P. Laws, Jack McMenemy, Bert Weston, Wm. Bullivant, Joe Hall and S. J. MacKenzie.

A special feature of the afternoon was the presentation of a lovely cup and saucer to Mrs. Dewhurst, by Mrs. W. G. O. Thompson, on behalf of the W.A., in appreciation of her splendid work. Mrs. Thompson read an excellent poem composed by Mrs. W. V. Grant and dedicated to Mrs. Dewhurst.
