13 Goals in Wide open Contest For Locals Second Loss

Georgetown suffered its second -Intermediate hockey loss at the hands of Milton on Monday night.

Hurst counted one in the opening minutes but Milton came back with three and kept the locals otherwise scoreless in the first period. Dewhurst. who did battle for Georgetown through many seasons scored Milton's second

Hurst and Schisizzi drew penaltics for high sticks in the 'second 'period but Hurst started pushing the Milton player and referee Houston handed an added three minutes to him for fight-

In the third Bush put Milton in the lead again but goals by Hurst Chrise made things look rosy Georgetown fans especially as the locals stood off Milton's best while Chriss was off for boarding, Hill however, managed to golf one behind Evans to the up the score with only two minutes to play.

Overtime proved to be the locals undoing for Hurst lost a puck in front of his net and Milton, quick to take advantage of the opening, banged it in. Hurst, however, managed to get that one back but the game was lost finally when McMunn picked up loose puck and slammed it home.

Although Milton got many breaksways throughout the game, Evans handled them nicely but sloppy clearing left him helpless on at least three of Milton's goals. . .

The Ferri brothers and their close inside-the-blue-line checking missed from the line-up. McNicoll kept the line of Beaumont. Hurst and Nash doing double-duty which proved his undoing, for in the

This strategy also kept players like. Ward, Kemshead and Richardson bench-warming, much to the Georgetown fans' discust. Shropshire for Georgetown and Brush for Milton were the team's bad boys. The former getting two penalties for flying tackles (officially called charging) and Brush two for tripping.

DETROIT AND BOSTON LEAD

. - MIDGET N.H.L.

(by Don Brill) Red Wings 4 - Rangers 0 Midgets were active during the week, playing four games, Last Thursday, Rangers took a decisive beating from Red Wings to a 4-0 tune. The Glen Team's "Kid Line" was really ac tive with Bud Haines and Carl 'Butch' Schenk showing up well. The scorers

1. Don Schenk; 2. Carl Schenk; 3 Jerry Ingles; 4. Don Schenk. Rangers looked a little weak around the blue line but everyone worked hard. Bedell did quite well.

No penalties were given. Bruins 3 — Canadiens 2 In a fast exhibition of hockey the powerful Bruin team took the Canadiens 3-2. Although the Canadiens outplayed the Bruins the latter came out best on the score sheet. Scorers were for Boston Bruins; 1, Ivan Huffman; (Rogers); 2, Ivan Huffman (Rogers);

3. Len Tennant (Norton). Canadien marksmen were: 1, Russ

Findley; 2, Bob Leslie. Benny corriman on forward for the Bears really "got hot", playing well while he was on the ice.

The game was by no means entirely clean with the following taking penaltles: Bill Brydon; Don Brydon; Ivan Huffman, George Rogers, Bill Reid.

Bob Leslie, Russ Fendley. Leafs 4 - Rangers 1 A closely played game, this was contested quite vigorously by both teams Byron "Bunny" Bedell and Don Herrington showed up well for the losers while Bullivant and Hamilton starred for Leafs. Ranger's lone tally was netted by Herrington while Leaf scoring was as follows. 1, Ballivant; 2, Davidson (Bullivant)

3. Bullivant; 4. Hamilton. Referee Doug Sargent had no serious trouble on his hands although he had to chase D. McCartney, J. Tyers, D. Barber, T. Bludd, F. Anderson on rough counts.

Detroit 3 - Black Hawks 2 Bodies, sticks, and pucks were flying heavily on Monday night as the Glen's powerful Red Wings rammed home a nard fought victory over the fast Black Hawk feam.

Ralph Peck and Harold Davidson had an argument midway through the final frame and were banished by the referee for the rest of the period. Red Wing Goal-getters were: 1; Beaumont: 2. Don Schenk: 3. Don!

Schenk. Hawks: Arnold (Thompson); King. Midget Standing WLTFAP

THIS AND THAT IN SPORT

By G. "Mac" McGilvray

Intermediate hockey seems to have taken a sudden reverse in town as the fast-skating Red Shirts have gone into a losing slump. We hope that situation is only temporary and that they will again find their stride when they blow into the Tanner's ice palace at Acton tomorrow night. Overconfidence and changes in the regular -Profit making hybrids. Real hardy line-up seem to have been the cause chicks. Pullets make wonderful lay- for the set-back. However, we doubt ers and can stand cold weather and if the losses will make much change on hardships.
