

An Anniversary - -

This week marks the end of our first year in business in Georgetown, and we are most desirous of thanking the shoppers of the district for their patronage.

We extend to you the same friendly and courteous service in the years to come and trust that this year we shall be more able to supply goods which have been in short supply.

EVANS — At Georgetown, on Saturday, April 6th, 1946, Jane Forbes Taylor, beloved wife of Walter T. Evans and dear mother of Ruth, James, Jean (Mrs. Roy M. Smale) and Margaret (Mrs. Charles Jeffery).

IN MEMORIAM

NORTON — In loving memory of a dear daughter and sister, Mildred Norton, who passed away April 7th, 1937.

There is a mother who misses you sadly, And finds the time long since you went, But I think of you dearly and hourly, But I try to be brave and content; But the tears that I shed in silence And the breath of a sigh of regret, For you were mine and I remember Though all the world forgets.

Ever remembered by Mother, Dad, Sisters and Brothers.

SLEIGHTHOLME — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Arthur Sleightholme, who passed away on April 9th, 1925. Memories are treasures no one can steal. Death is a heartache nothing can heal. Some may forget you now you are gone. But we will remember no matter how long. —Ever remembered by wife and daughter, Stella.

50-50 CLUB WILL CONDUCT CHURCH SERVICE

The meeting of the 50-50 Club of Georgetown United Church took the form of a rehearsal in the church for Sunday's evening service, when the club will have charge of the service. Hosts for the eve'g. were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McBride and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Jones, and the group later gathered at the Jones' homes on Charles Street to hear a talk by the host on mushroom growing.
