FASHION SHOW AIDS GLEN RECREATIONAL FUND

A very successful social evening, sponsored by the Glen Williams Recreational Centre was held at the home of Miss Madeleine Mullin on Wednesday evening, April 10th. Mr. J. F. Lindner who is Chairman of the Recreational Centre was in charge, and in opening asked the support of their major endeavour. The Glen Old Boys' Reunion on June 21 and 22.

The main feature of the evening was a Fashion Show sponsored by Silver's Department Store of Georgetown under the capable direction of Miss Lilian Watson assisted by Mrs. Mary Jourdain. Mrs. Mervyn Cook of Georgetown acted as Model and displayed many smart costumes. An added attraction of the evening was Tea-Cup Reading, this being handled by Mrs. Edith Hamilton of Acton, and Mrs. Mary Jourdain of Georgetown. During the evening a piano solo was rendered by Mrs. William Lindner of Norval, and Mrs. Elsie Baxter of Glen Williams played many numbers during the evening.

The sum of $39.00 was raised from this Social and the Committee of the Glen Williams' Recreational Centre wish to thank all of those who so ably assisted in making this evening such a success.

ROY BARKER NEW DOMINION STORE MANAGER

A change on the Main Street business scene occurred on Monday when Mr. Roy Barker arrived as the new manager of the Dominion Store. He replaces Mr. Jack Watson who has left the firm to take a position with Silver's Dept. Store. Mr. Watson had returned to his position as manager after serving for over four years with the Lorne Scots and the H. & P.E. Regiment overseas.

Mr. Barker is also a veteran of three years' service overseas. He was manager of the Dominion Store in Cobourg when he enlisted with the ROA SC. He returned in February after serving in England and on the continent with the 86 Bridge Coy. While overseas, he was married to Nursing Sister Eleanor Green, of Belton, who has just returned to Canada.

A native of Cookeville, he has been with the Dominion Stores in many towns including Whitby, Oshawa, Bowmanville, Trenton, Picton and Campbellford.

JOINS BROTHER IN BUSINESS IN THE GLEN

Mr. Henry Young has recently joined his brother, Mr. W. G. Young, in his business in Glen Williams, known as the Fixit Shop. The brothers are natives of Newfoundland, and Henry served overseas almost six years with the Royal Montreal Regiment. He returned to Canada last summer and has been recuperating from shrapnel wounds. His wife, whom he married overseas, is a native of Stanley, Surrey.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Ethel Lowden takes this means of expressing her thanks and appreciation for the favours extended to her by her many friends on her departure for Australia.
