Limehouse has had its meanest thick or thieves. On Thursday afternoon someone robbed Mr. Bert McCauley who is blind, of $32, which he had suved for oosl for his own and his blind proteers home. About the same time. Mr. Percy Hurst, a cripple lost $1, be ing all he had in that wallet at the time. In both cases the money taken from the victim's pockets in pretext of looking for a match. We hope that the officers working on the case ostch up with them and that they go what they well deserve.

The Annual meeting of Limehouse W. I was held in the Memorial Hall last Thursday afternoon. Previous to the meeting 25 ladies were entertained at lunch by Mrs. Ellerby, president. The secretary read that over $80, had been cleared from the bazaar and Mrs Sanford, April financial convenor had cleared another $45 from a play and socials.

Mrs. Smethurst's winning poem "The W.I." was read.

Mrs. Francis Brown reported on the the District Directors' meeting and Mrs. A. W. Benton on the annual meeting of Halton Children's Aid Society Two memberships were paid for the 1946-47 Children's Aid Society. Mrs.

What are some of the more import-

Possibly one of the most fascinating and ancient hobbies is collecting. Man from earliest times seems to have possessed a mania to make collections.

Some gathered brightly coloured stones or animal teeth, others had caches of crude knives and spears, while the more lusty decorated their hute and caves with human heads and scalps, Many of these items are still a passion for the modern collector. It is from
