en there used to be a cheap way to swell his collection. on on one of the narrow, cob-

Send better grade hogs to market with Swift's Gro-mor Hog Concentrate

You get more for your money with any Swift's feed. Why?

Because Swift's have both the research facilities and a special reason for making feeds that give results. The reason?

Swift's depend on the produce you grow! Yes, it's common seaso or buy Swift's balanced feeds!

GEORGETOWN FEED MILL

L. A. MURPHY - NORVAL

very woods, conjury than the old melobest absorbed stra- early days to Chaude, wary type of the bild gless covered cases building with coins They are rare. Maybe you can start histowayenen and de- of every description. Oothe were his Buch is the factiontion hobby. Sallors brought them to him relies. There is a story ab- from all parts of the world. He felt that a few pounds of candy was a

Needless to say, most of us boys used one streets in Lower Town, Que- to haunt the old shop, and browse ab-Districts the shabby location of out his coins listening to the interestn the candymaker had a repu- ing tales he could tell. The good thisubject becought oustomers from ngs he made were nearly forgotten. of the city. As boys we used Our boys and girls who have seen ad in his direction whenever we active service overseas, have picked up maties to spend. One day sev- many old coins during their travels. There's a thrilling story connected entered and bought a large sup- with each one. Then too, there are Parisets. We were all somewhat old coins in out-of-the-way boxes and left we backword him with ques- one if you're lucky. Weech your change can find a Canadian cent dated 1914? your collection with one.

> An Oriental story tells of a man who was saked to lend a rope to a neighbor. His reply was that he was in need of the rope just then. Shall you need it a long time, said > the neighbour I think I shall, replied the owner, as I'm going to tie up some sand with

Tie up sand! exclaimed the wouldbe borrower. I don't see how you can

Oh, you can do almost anything with rope when you don't want to lend it was the reply.

-CHEEKTRATE

NUTRITION IS

OUR BUSINESS

-AND YOURS!

BLECT OFFICERS. HOLD CHURCH SERVICE

Officers were elected at the May netting of Norval Junior Farmers and Junior Institute. Which was held at the home of Jim Dosne,---

Mr. J. E. Whitelock of Milton, County agricultural representative, was speaker at the joint meeting and gave an interesting address on "Food Shortage and Price Control."

Officers for the coming year are: Junior Institute Hon. President - Betty Ruddell President - Ismey Keen Vice-President - Marion Currie Secty-Treasurer - Betty Van Vliet District Director - Isobel Currie Directors - Elsie Bird, Jean Chester, Mae Wingfield.

Auditors - Charlotte McCullough Frances Evans.

Junior Farmers Hon.-President - Doug Currie President — Ward Brownridge Vice-President --- Wm. Alexander Sec'ty-Treasurer — Jim Doane Directors - John Lyons, Elwood Carney, Neil Van Vliet.

On Sunday evening, May 12th, the Juniors held their annual church service in Norval United Church, Douglas Currie and Betty Ruddell, presidents of the club, were in charge. Hartley and Colin Anderson of Milton and Florence Laidlaw of Norval gave musical selections, and Mr. Gordon Hume of Milton, theological student at Victoria College was guest speaker.

BALLINAFAD

A good temperance address was given in the church Sunday morning stressing the need of temperance in everything in times like these.

Miss Isobel Alexander of the Toronto teaching staff spent last week-end at F. J. Shortill's.

Miss E. McDougal of Caledon East spent the week-end with Joanna Shor-

A large crowd gathered in the hall Thursday evening in honour of Leo Jamieson and his Scottish bride. After a short program Mrs. N. Sinclair read an address and they were presented with many useful household articles. A welcome was extended to Mrs. Jamleson and all joined in wishing them a happy and prosperous wedded life in the community.

The W.M.S. are holding a sacred concert in the church Sunday evening

WESTERN YODELLER

Marjorie Diller is the young cowgirl yodeller of the Red River Barn Dance troup, heard regularly on Saturdays, over mid-east stations of the CBC Trans-Canada network at 11.00 p.m. EDT and a lengthy musical program is being prepared.

The May meeting of the W.M.S. was held Wednesday afternoon at Mrs. S. Marshall's. Most of the members were present. Mrs. Warne had charge of the topic which was very timely, the subject being "The responsibility of the Mothers and the home in rearing the children.'

ASHGROVE

The Womens Institute held its May meeting on the twenty-first at the home of Mrs. Frank Ruddell with splendid attendance of ladies. After the usual opening exercises and Roll Call, Mrs. Thos. Giffen gave a splendid motto on "Contentment is founded on plain living and high thinking." The group was very pleased to have Mrs. Lloyd Crawford of Campbellville the District president of Halton Institute who gave some splendid thoughts and suggestions for Institute programmes. Her address was enjoyed by all and listened to with much interest.

Miss Betty Ruddell sang the 4-H Club Song. Mrs. Archer gave guitar selections and Mrs. Bellboddy a reading. A social hour over the tea-cups closed a very profitable afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Jack White and Sally Elizabeth of Toronto spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. C. B., Dick, Mrs. Marion Hunter attended the wedding on May 24th of her friend, the former Miss Jean Bennie of Duart to Mr. Robert Footit of Acton, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wrigglesworth of Ogden, Utah, are visiting with his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wrigglesworth.

On Saturday evening May 25th, at the home of Mr .and Mrs. Arthur Ruddell a birthday party was held for his mother Mrs. S. K. Ruddell of Georgetown; it being her 89th birthday.

Twenty guests sat down to the birthday supper, among whom were Marjorie Ruddell of Toronto, Miss Freida Howden of Caledonia and Mr. and Mr. Percy Laidlaw and family from Norval. We all wish Mrs. Ruddell happy birthday and hope she will have many many more.

Miss Vioa Brigden of Toronto was home for the holiday week-end. Mr. Sidney Carman of Caledon East was a recen, visitor with Mr. and Mrs.

Bellioddy. He recently returned from service with the army overseas. The date for Ashgrove Sunday School picnic has been set for June 13th at

ANNUAL ACHIEVEMENT DAY FOR HALTON JUNIOR FARMERS SCHEDULED FOR JUNE FIRST

Stanley Park, Enn

Saturday, June 1st, is the big day for Halton Junior Farmers and Junior Homemakers, when their annual livestock judging competitions and achievement day will be held. The young ladies who have been carrying on various home economics projects will meet at the Milton Town Hall, where under the leadership of Miss Lulu Row, their exhibits and demonstrations will be staged. During the morning the young men with Agric. Rep. J. E. Whitelock in charge, will visit five of Trafalgar's leading livestock farmers, where ten classes of livestock wil be judged."

The two high school ladies are to be awarded a trip to Niagara Falls and New York State, while the champion Junior Farmer judge will receive a trip to the Chicago International and 4-H Club Congress next December.

The announcement of the awards and presentation of prizes will be made in the Milton Town Hall the same evening. An outstanding list of trophies are building a stone wall right here and prizes have been donated and a large turnout is assured, states Geo. E. Farmers.

snort informal dance.

Take a look through your office stationery and if your supply is low telephone "The Herald" (No. 8), for Letterbeads, billheads, envelopes - Mrything you need - at reasonable prices

The Runaway Car

By BEATRICE LESTER McClure Syndicate-WNU Features.

DERRY LANCE lifted the dish cover, and regarded the bacon and eggs with a skeptical eye. " 'All the world loves a lover,' " he quoted glumly. "But-"

"But-I have not finished row breakfast." added his guest, Billy Latham. "Of course, we all know that the world loves a lover, and all that, and of course I am aware that not one fair daughter of Eve cares two whoops for you! Right?" "Right," gloomily assented Perry as he belped himself to a hot roll "It is all your own fault," went on Billy Latham, "You are a recluse, a woman hater, yes, indeed, dear boy! And yet you wonder why you have reached the advanced ago of thirty and have never loved a woman!"

"Once upon a time you were engaged to a girl."

"She thought I was a wash-out. All that she liked about me was my bankbook."

"All girls are not alike, Perry. Put on your old clothes and come and a good speaker has been secured, with me for a tramp. We can act as agents for Potcleaver's cooking; uttensils-eh?"

> "Get about a bit and see the world through clearer eyes?" Perry laughed heartily.

"A lark, I'll say," replied his: friend. "Come on, Perry, it's a fine. spring day. Let's go out and buy a rummy looking old car and some sample pots and pans!"

Half an hour later the two young. men drove away from the central

Bill Latham was at the wheel of the second-hand car as it went its rather erratic way.

garage of the town in a second-hand automobile of such ancient vintage that the garage mechanics crowded forward to see them depart.

"Some pranks those rich fellers play," grinned one of the workmen. as the car disappeared.

"It is Lance's vacation-they say when he does work that he's at it: day and night-writes books. you

Bill Latham was at the wheel of the second-hand car as it went its rather erratic way along the country byways. They had excellent luck in selling the pots and pans and they took many orders for them, but no money would be paid until the: goods were delivered. Girls they had met in numbers-demure country maidens-the more sophisticated city sisters-all of them more or less pretty-but not one of them with the unusual beau--ty, spirit and fire that Perry Lance yearned for in the girl he might love and who might love him

One day he thought he had met her when a tractor passed them, a small tractor driven by a girl with a black smudge on her cheek and dressed in khaki overalls

Behind them sounded the deep blare of a motor horn and the rumbling clatter of the tractor. Then it shot past them at top speed

"Ye Gods!" yelled Billy "She's put the tractor across-the road!"

Perry stared ahead and saw the tracter lumber to a standstill across their path in advance. He saw the girl jump from the tractor and run toward them. It did not surprise him when she jumped on the running-board of their car which wasevidently bound for destruction.

'Get off!" he shouted. 'Get off yourself," she laughed at nim. "Come on jump off before it

This being good advice to follow: she jumped off gracefully with a little running movement in the road and the two young men followed.

The flivver was not going fast but it hit the tractor with a sharp impact that seemed to settle her own disorganization, for when she stopped with no damage to either tractor or car beyond a shattered windshield on the latter, the three of them looked at one another cheer-

"The government is closing the road-you passed the traffic sign at the cross roads," said the girl, "We next week."

If Perry Lane discovered that Bet-Atkins, President of the Halton Junior ty Dunlap was the one girl in the world for him, and if he wooed her The day's programme will conclude as an agent, who can blame him? He found out that her father was the contractor who had the particular job and. Betty was driving the tractor because she liked to do it for a lask. This particular lark led beta of them to the altar and Perry's testh in the female species was re-

THANKS TO

GRO-MOR!

FROM THE MOORS OF SCOTLAND, the rocky coasts of Ireland, from English cities and farms they came, their hearts filled with wonder and a great World, came the sturdy countrymen of Europe. Canada! and the very name was magic. Canada, land of opportunity hope. With them, fleeing from the hardships and oppressions of the Old

~ Canada Unlimited ~

. . . where a man's two strong hands could carve out security.

Up the mighty St. Lawrence to quaintly old-world Quebec-on through the rolling fields of Ontario-to the vast fertile miles of the Prairies—to the wooded slopes of the Rockies. And wherever they made their homes new strength was added to the bonds of blood kinship . . . new solidarity to the cause of Empire. Within a few short years they had become a part of the fabric of Canada,' their unbounded faith in the country of their choice justified, their dreams merged into the one dream that was to become a reality. The reality of Canada Unlimited—the Canada of today.

And the bright light of freedom and prosperity which they saw, shines today for all of us with an even greater brilliance, beckoning -

depicting the growth of Canada as a nation, produced by O'Kerie's on the occasion of their

us to the Canada of Tomorrow . . . the Canada that will be more surely and swiftly ours if we give expression to our continuing faith by our purchase and holding of Victory Bonds.