HORNBY

The Hornby United Church Young People's Union held its final meeting of the season on Monday evening, May 27th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar May. Murray Sinclair had charge of the programme. Ernest Edwards read the scripture lesson, and Murray gave the prayer. It was Missionary Night and Murray gave four reasons why we should support missionary work, emphasizing the fact that the alien who came down in the so-called heathen countries of the Pacific found not cannibals ready to eat them up but Christian men and women who were anxious to help in every way possible. Carman Cantelon was at the piano.

A committee was appointed to take care of summer activities, and some plans were made for the church service on August 4th, when the young people will take charge while the minister and his wife are on their holidays.

On Monday evening, May 27th, the Hornby Young People's Association put on their play at Erin. They report a good time and appreciative audience.

Annual Conference of the United Church which was held in Guelph from Tuesday to Friday of last week.

"That was a very pretty wedding." "If I were going to be married I would like it done like that," were some of the things heard after the wedding in the Bethel United Church on Saturday afternoon last, when Wilfred Lloyd McNeil was married to Helen Elizabeth Simpson. Some last minute plastering on the ceiling of the church threatened to provide considerable unpleasantness, but women friends were on hand with pails and mops and wax, and by three-thirty in the afternoon the church looked just about as nice as any bride could wish it to look. The floral decorations were well chosen to blend with the costumes of the four bridesmaids and the flower girls, and the dress and veil that Helen wore. The full ceremony as arranged by Gowman was used. The Bethel Church was well filled with friends and relatives who were there to wish the happy couple success and prosperity.

At the Simpson home the guests, numbering fifty or more, passed along the receiving line to their seats, after which a very fine wedding breakfast was served. When the wedding cake an fruit drink had been passed toasts were proposed to the bride, the flower-girl and the bridesmaids, and the bride's mother Mrs. Simpson. Reverend Fred Ainsworth was Master of Ceremonies. The wedding car was decorated with standard inscriptions done in white shoe polish, and carried the usual miscellaneous train behind. Nobody knew where the newly married couple were going.

ASHGROVE

A very delightful afternoon was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lamond on Saturday, May 25th when a large number of friends and neighbours gathered to honour Miss Isabelle Alexander who is being married June 8th. After a program of music and reading and a humorous impromptu speech to the bride by Mrs. H. Wrigglesworth of Georgetown, Mrs. Percy Leslie read an address and Mrs. W. Bird and Mrs. R. Hepburn presented a lovely floor lamp and wall mirror in the cornflower pattern. Isabelle feelingly replied and thanked everyone and invited them to her new home at Mt. Pleasant. A dainty lunch closed this happy afternoon. Guests were present from Norval and Mt. Pleasant.
