Glen Presentation and Reunion Friday and Saturday

M.D. 2 Commander Will Present Gifts to Servicemen

Variety Show, Street Dance, Sports and Ball Highlight Celebration — Community Church Service Sunday.

The culmination of months of planning and preparation, Glen Williams residents will officially welcome home their men and women of the armed services at a big celebration this Friday and Saturday when a joint presentation and old boys' reunion will be held.

The festivities get underway on Friday night with a variety show featuring several stars of the "Stop & Go" show which played at the Royal Alexandra Theatre in Toronto a few weeks ago. On Saturday at 1 p.m. the Lorne Scots Band will head a military parade to the athletic grounds, where Brigadier H. A. Sparling, D.S.O., Officer Commanding Military District No. 2 will officiate at the presentation of wrist watches to members of the armed forces. The 84 persons to be thus honoured are those who were resident in the Glen within a two-month period previous to their enlistment. A good proportion of those saw service overseas and five of them paid the supreme sacrifice. To the next of kin of these, will be presented mantle clocks in their memory.

Following the presentation, there will be an afternoon of sports, races and ball games, concluding with street dancing with the Modern Aires in the evening.

Some 650 invitations have been mailed to former Glen residents in Canada and the United States and it is expected that many of these will be back in the Glen for the week-end. On Sunday, a community church service will be held in St. Alban's at 11 a.m. with Rev. F. J. Dunlop preaching the sermon and the rector, Ven. W. G. O. Thompson, assisting.

J. F. Lindner is general chairman of the large committee which includes Mrs. Mary Watson, secretary, Montague Merryday, treasurer and the following committee chairman:

Thos. Haines — sports
Roy Norton — games
Mrs. J. Crawford — refreshments
Roland Haines — grounds
Wm. Schenk — decorating
Arthur Beaumont — advertising
W. S. Lindner — entertainment
M. Merryday — reception
Harold Wheeler — parade
Proceeds from the celebration will be used for the development of a recreational centre in the Glen.

PRINCIPAL BRYDEN AT LIMBHOUSE ANNIVERSARY

Congregations which overflowed the seating capacity of the Church greeted the Rev. Dr. W. W. Bryden, Principal of Knox College, Toronto, on the occasion of the 85th anniversary of Limbhouse Presbyterian Church on Sunday, June 16th.

At the morning service the guest preacher dwelt on the "Nature of the Church," dealing with the text "Other foundation can no man lay than is laid, which is Jesus Christ," and pointing out that the German race had believed in God plus the German blood and soul, the Americans appear to believe in God and the American way, and British people in God and the English tradition. The Church, however, is that people wherever found, who believe in God alone.

At the evening service, Principal Bryden spoke on the "Nature of Faith," from Mark 11:22 "Have Faith in God." There is a kind of faith abroad today which is a presumptuous faith, and which seems to feel that it is God's business to forgive. This, said the speaker, has given rise to a conception of Jesus as a rather amiable figure. Though there is no tenderness like that of Jesus, it is also true that He is the author of the severest "woes" in the history of man.

At the evening service, on behalf of the congregation, Dr. Bryden was presented with a French morocco bound Bible and Book of Prayers, suitably lettered in gold, by the minister, the Rev. Chas. C. Cochrane.

Miss Marion Hepburn of Glen Williams, accompanied by Mr. Kenneth Harrison at the organ, sang two lovely solos "Come Unto Him" and "O Divine Redeemer" at the services.

WAR BRIDE ARRIVES

Mrs. Jack Cotton, the former Kitty Marx of London, England, arrived in Toronto last week-end after crossing from England on the Queen Mary. She will be soon taking up residence in town with her husband, who recently purchased the Brill Departmental Store, and we welcome her to the community.

THE WEATHER

by H. L. Hutt
We have just returned from a short trip to Guelph, Kitchener and Stratford and cannot refrain from speaking of the beauty of the country and growing crops all along the route. We had a heavy rain at Stratford yesterday forenoon while there was not a drop at Georgetown. And while we had a fine shower here last night we hear by radio of the tornado at Windsor last night with a score or more of lives lost. It all goes to show what a great variation in the weather there may be within a short distance, and how impossible it is for forecasters to tell just what the probs may be all over the country.

Here are the local records for the past week.

Tues., June 11	77	53	26"
Wed., June 12	76	53
Thur., June 13	63	57
Fri., June 14	63	42
Sat., June 15	68	41

GEORGETOWN IN BASEBALL CELLAR AFTER 16-2 TRUNCING BY OAKVILLE

Georgetown Intermediates' fourth game in the county baseball loop was a major blow for the locals when a smooth-clicking Oakville nine garnered 16 runs from 17 well-placed hits to trim them by a 16-2 score. The game was played in Georgetown park last Wednesday and marked the second appearance of Oakville here. Georgetown had won 8-5 in the previous game and ball fans were ill-prepared for the set-back.

Oakville's power-plays came in the second and sixth innings, when 5 and 8 runs crossed the plate. Combining these with the baffling change-of-pace of pitcher McGowan, the Georgetowners looked like a bewildered bunch. Bill Bryden on the Georgetown mound pitched three perfect innings in the middle frames when he put away nine men, including four strikeouts. He didn't show so well in the first two innings and his portion of the sixth with ten hits accounting for nine Oakville runs. Relief hurler Joe McMenemy who replaced him had no better luck and gave seven hits for seven runs.

Georgetown used ten men, with Gord Lane replacing "Bungy" Ward at left field in the fifth. Georgetown's hits were a one-bagger by Patterson in the fourth, a solid clout by Chaplin good for two bases, and a nip-and-tuck single which Everett Wilson's fleet feet made count in the sixth. McGowan struck out seven men, and particularly fooled Joe McMenemy with strike-outs in his three times at bat.

Georgetown — A. Ritchie, 2b; Willson, cf; Joe McMenemy, ss and p; Patterson, 1b; B. Ritchie, c; Chaplin, rf; Bryden, p; Evans, 3b; Ward, (Lane) lf.
Oakville — Green, Davidson, Carter, Markey, Galbraith, Picard, Snowball Izatt, McGowan.
Umpire — Tyne.

PIRATES BEATEN 10-3 BY MILTON IN JUVENILE OPENING

Georgetown Pirates, playing their opening game in the county O.B.A. loop last night, were beaten 10-3 by the Milton lads, who now lead the league with two straight wins. The game was an even match except for a disastrous fourth inning, when the Miltonites hit everything that pitcher Spence had to offer and netted their whole ten runs. He was relieved part way through the inning by Herrington, who finished the game on the mound.

Georgetown got two runs in the second and another in the fourth, but couldn't overcome the effects of the fourth-inning slug fest.

Don Bryden was heavy hitter for the Pirates with three well-placed hits in three times at bat. Hoare and Sykes netted one in three. Pitcher Marshall for Milton was credited with 9 strikeouts, Spence with one, and Herrington four.

Pirates — Bill Muir, 2b; Ross Dillon, lf; Cliff Norton, c; Bud Hoare, 3b; Don Bryden, ss; Walt Sargent, lf; Ross Sykes, 1b; Jack King cf; Melv. Spence; (Don Herrington) p.
Milton — Vaughn, Rusk, S. Fay, Allan (Bennett), Nadalin, Waters (Greene), K. Fay (South), Robertson, Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Morrison of Everett were week-end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kennedy.

LONG HARNESS-MAKER, R. C. NIXON DIES

A life-long Esqueping Township resident, and well-known throughout the district as a skilled harness-maker, R. C. (Chris) Nixon died peacefully in his sleep on Saturday morning, June 15th, at his home on Maple Avenue. Mr. Nixon had been in failing health for some time and had been confined to bed for the past year.

He was born 85 years ago in Stewarstown, the son of the late Edward Nixon and Jane Walker. Learning his trade from his father, he conducted a harness shop in that community for some years, moving to Georgetown about 30 years ago, where he established a similar business on Wesleyan Street.

Mr. Nixon was the last surviving member of his family. He leaves his wife, formerly Clara Campbell, and one son, Keith of Toronto. Rev. C. C. Cochrane conducted the funeral service from the home on Monday afternoon. During the service, Miss Marion Hepburn sang the lovely solo, "Lead, Kindly Light." Pallbearers were Dr. F. Watson, K. M. Langdon, R. B. Foulis, Victor MacDonald, Fred Thompson and Freeman Kersey. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.

BETTY RUDDELL SPEAKS ON CHICAGO TRIP

The Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. W. G. McDowell, Thursday evening, June 13th at 8 p.m. with Mrs. Wm. Sinclair and Mrs. Harry Bailey presiding.

Mrs. Bailey gave a very fine report of the District Annual held at Burlington on June 5th.

The highlight of the meeting was a report given by Miss Betty Ruddell of her trip to Chicago last December. This trip is sponsored annually by the Women's Institutes and all rural young people may compete, the trip being awarded to the one obtaining highest marks and Miss Ruddell was the winner for this district. She gave a very interesting account of her trip and the sight seeing tours.

Mrs. J. H. Lallico gave a very pleasing piano solo, after which all joined in a singing. After a vote of thanks to the hostess, Miss Ruddell, Mrs. Lallico, and Mrs. Bailey for her splendid report, the meeting closed by singing the National Anthem after which a cup of tea was served.

ANOTHER $30 PAID IN SHEEP CLAIMS

At a meeting of Esqueping Council held on Friday evening June 14th, another $30 was paid in sheep claims as follows:

Emmett, McGibbon	$ 6.00
Wilfrid Harding	16.00
Meldrum Stark, val.	4.00
F. W. Shortill, val.	4.00

This makes a total of $1065.50 which sheep-killing dogs have cost the township this spring.

The treasurer was authorized to sign all cheques in the name of the Corporation to transact all business in and for the township with the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

Donations were voted to the following:

Glen Williams Recreational Centre	$740.
Norval Committee for Service Personnel	$300.
Ward 1 Service Personnel Committee	$260.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Hurley and daughter Georgina, and Mr. Jim Sykes, all of Toronto, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Hurley at their home on John Street.

SPORT NEWS

Are we down-hearted? — No! Georgetown still has the stuff to come up from cellar spot and we're rooting for a win tonight at Milton.

We think those who drew up the schedule might have had a more interesting distribution of games. For instance, our next three games are with Milton, with Oakville and Acton playing a three-some on the same nights. Then, too, there is a two-week silence at the local park from June 12 to June 26, which is too long when you're trying to keep up sustained interest in a sport.

The game at Oakville Saturday was postponed due to another event at Oakville park. Some of the local fans and players used the opportunity to take in the Milton and Acton game in Tannery Town.

A change in schedule was necessary because of the Lions Horse Show in the park here on June 29th. So Georgetown will play in Acton that day, with Acton playing here on July 3. Mark that change on your schedule.

WELCOME HOME L.A.C. Wilfred Mino

LAC Wilfred Mino returned home to his wife and daughter Linda Joyce last Tuesday night following service overseas with the RCAF. He crossed from England on the Aquitania. His homecoming was delayed by a few weeks when the Ile de France on which he was scheduled to sail, broke down. LAC Mino enlisted in October, 1943, and trained at Galt, St. Thomas and Guelph before going to England in August 1944. He was there only a short time when he was sent to India, and returned to England last September. He was employed with the Georgetown Lumber Co. when he enlisted.

MRS. ARTHUR SQUIRES DIES SUDDENLY

It was a great shock to her friends in town to learn of the sudden death of Mrs. Arthur L. Squires on Saturday, June 8th, from a heart attack. A resident of Georgetown since 1924, she was born Mary Edith Thornton, 69 years ago in Sweaborg near Woodstock, a daughter of the late Reuben Thornton and Jennie Wilson. Her late husband, who predeceased her nine years ago was ONR station agent here and they came to Georgetown from Rockwood, where he held a similar position.

Mrs. Squires was a member of Georgetown United Church. She was intensely fond of her home and family, and spent a great deal of time tending the lovely flowers around her Queen Street home.

She leaves a family of four children, Reuben of Lambeth, Mrs. Ross McPhail (Erie) of Brooksby, Sask., Jack of Toronto, and Mrs. Edwin Hall (Edythe) of Georgetown. Also surviving are 7 grandchildren and a brother, Edward Lounsbury of Woodstock. A daughter, Jennie Maude Squires, died in 1911.

The funeral service on Tuesday was held from the home and was conducted by Rev. R. C. Todd assisted by Rev. John McDermaid of Brampton. Pallbearers were George Martin, Everett Cole and Jack Watson of Georgetown, and Roy Young, Stewart Royce and Fred Moore of Rockwood. Interment was in Rockwood Cemetery.

WITH THE ANGLERS

by G. H.
Fishing conditions were fair over the week-end. The water was low and clear. The results were that the trout were shy and wary and it was almost impossible to approach without their knowing.

BROWN TROUT
Three Anglers from Toronto had good success in the Credit when they hooked and landed 4 fish weighing 3 and a half, 3, 2 and a half, and one and a half pounds. They were using a Buck-tail fly. Two larger fish were lost at the net.

SPECKLED TROUT
Bill Tuck and friends had fair success at Eugenia last week. This is good water for fly fishermen especially just at dusk. Flies that take them up there are the Grey and Brown, Cranes, and the Despairs.

The cost for a boat is a dollar a day. Jack Tomlinson and Bill Pinkerton, of Eugenia and Barney Welton of Fleasherton are taking some nice fish around two or three pounds at the traps and other spots. Jack, Bill, and Barney also rent boats. It's worth anyone's time to motor to Eugenia to view the dam which is about a quarter mile long. The pond extends 3 miles back from the dam. The upper end where the river comes in is the best for fly fishing. However, some very nice trout have been caught by anglers fishing from the top of the dam with bait and flies.

FISHING AND HUNTING CLUB

Several persons have inquired at the Herald Office about forming a club. We are trying to find out how many are interested in one. If you haven't time to call at the office, just drop an envelope to the Herald with your name and address in it. Anyone in town or out could join it. It would cost 2 or 3 dollars a year. This money would be used to buy fish to restock our streams, for membership cards, badges and also for paying the expenses of expert fly and bait casters who would demonstrate for us. Other things we could have are skeet and trap clubs, rifle clubs, rabbit drives, deer hunting trips and last but not least social nights so we could have some fun and tell of the big ones that got away.

If enough are interested, we could arrange for an organizer to come out the night we will have our meeting. So let's hear from you fellows. That's all for now. Good fishing until next week.

MRS. A. McDONALD HONORED AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

On Saturday evening, June 8th, sixty friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mrs. A. McDonald, Dolly Varden, for a surprise birthday party in her honour. Guests were present from Acton, Toronto, Georgetown, Fort Credit, Limbhouse and Milton. Music for dancing was supplied by Earl Scott, Georgetown, Bill Summers, Limbhouse, Garnet Kay, Crewson's, Corns, H. McDonald, Milton and G. Fountain and T. Gibbons, Acton.

After a bountiful lunch, Mr. Sam Crisby called Mrs. McDonald to the front and an address was read by William McDonald from her sons and daughters, as follows:

Dear Mother:
On this happy occasion we, your family are again doing the unexpected and have gathered to spend a few happy hours together.

We are asking you to accept this small gift as a token of our love and esteem, and hope that it may give you much pleasure to use it in any way you may desire.

We do not often express our thoughts but we do not forget the patient and ever-loving care that you have given us through the years. Now we hope that each of us in our own way may help to make your life bright and cheerful.

Your loving Sons and Daughters.
A well-filled purse was presented by Norman McDonald on behalf of the eight sons and two daughters, and the group sang "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Miss Doris McDonald read an address and Miss Mary McDonald presented a lovely bouquet of roses from the grandchildren.

Many lovely flowers and gifts were received by Mrs. McDonald who, though taken completely by surprise, made a splendid speech of thanks and invited everyone back as often as they care to visit.

CEDARVALE

A number from here attended the banquet at Churchill on Wednesday evening for the returned servicemen. Miss Mary Currie of Oshawa has been engaged as our teacher.
