CLEAVE WILSON WEDS SNELGROVE GIRL IN CHRIST CHURCH, BRAMPTON

The wedding took place in Christ Church, Brampton, on Saturday, June 15th, of Mary Noreen, daughter of Mrs. Albert Ellis and the late Mr. Ellis of Snelgrove, and Andrew Cleave Wilson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Seward Wilson of Georgetown. Rev. C. Allan Johnson officiated and the wedding music was played by Mr. Donald Charters.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Emerson Ellis, was lovely in a wedding gown of white satin, with long train. Her full-length veil was caught with a wreath of orange blossoms worn by her mother at her own wedding. She carried a bouquet of red roses framing two orchids in the centre.

Her sister, Mrs. Harold Cook of Snelgrove, was matron-of-honour and Miss Eleanor Martin of Weston, bridesmaid. They were similarly gowned in white satin with white net skirts, elbow-length veils and gardenia headpieces. Both carried bouquets of pink roses. The brides niece, little Betty Kerr, was flower girl, wearing a gown similar to the others and carrying a bouquet of blue and pink cornflowers.

Mr. Newton Ruddell was groomsman, and ushers were Harold Cook and Hyatt McClure, brothers-in-law of the bride and groom. During the signing of the register, Mr. James Porter of Snelgrove sang "O Perfect Love."

A reception followed at Elm Bluff Farm, home of the bride's mother, where Mrs. Ellis received the guests, gowned in mauve and jersey silk with corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Wilson assisted wearing blue georgette, with pink rose corsage. For a honeymoon trip to Northern Ontario, the bride wore a light blue wool suit with white accessories. On their return they will take up residence on the groom's farm near Georgetown.

Legion Notes

by L. M. C.

All Comrades are urged to participate in the parade on Sunday in memory of our fallen comrades. We feel that it is the very least that every member (AND every citizen of the community) can do in honour of them. The parade will be called at 2.15 outside the Legion rooms. From there the parade will go first to the Cenotaph where a wreath will be placed and from there will proceed to the cemetery. Graves will be decorated and a plot decorated in memory of those who did not return. The Ven. W. G. O. Thompson, chaplain of the Branch, will be in charge of the service. The Lorne Scots Band will head the parade, marshalled by Comrade David Bowman, M.M. It is hoped that EVERY member of the Branch and the Auxiliary will be on hand to march in this parade, and as many citizens as possible to attend the ceremony. The Women's Auxiliary are planning to march in the parade also.

A Grave Decoration Day should be one of the most important parades and services in the year for the Legion. Every citizen as well as every member owes a debt of gratitude to those who fought and died in World Wars 1 and 11, or who have since passed away — and it is only through such a service that their memories may be perpetuated. Again, we cannot urge too strongly that every single person in the community should attend. It is the hope of Branch 120 that this can be an annual community service.

Remember the parade taking place on Saturday to Glen Williams. This is a scheduled part of the Glen celebration, and it is hoped a goodly number will represent Branch 129 in the parade.

CARD OF THANKS
