LETTER TO THE EDITOR

24th June, 1946.
The Editor,
Georgetown Herald.

Dear Mr. Editor:
May I through your columns, offer hearty congratulations to the people of Glen Williams for the excellent handling of their Reunion and Presentation program. The enthusiasm and industry shown by all, was something of which the whole community may be justly proud.

Yours very truly,
"Georgetown Resident"

The Editor,
Georgetown Herald

Dear Sir:
With your co-operation may I rush right into print and say what a really grand job the community of Glen Williams has done for its sons and daughters. The people of "The Glen" throughout the war years have shown a sustained interest in their young people which might well be envied by any community. They have not allowed themselves to get all tangled up in words but have expressed their devotion through careful and enthusiastic organization.

The celebration of the past week-end, welcoming the boys and girls home, the presentation of watches to all of them, was a perfect example of what a community can do when not hindered by the deadening philosophy of "Let George Do It."

The Glen may well be proud of itself. The celebration was well planned and organized. The entertainments were carefully arranged and excellently executed. The advertising campaign was the best this county has seen in many a year.

The Glen may well be the envy of other communities.
Yours sincerely
Georgetown Spectator.
