

WHITMEE'S TAXI & THE LIONS HORSE SHOW

Being in the taxi business, with our modern 1946 automobiles, you might wonder why we are interested in horses. But although the horse has had his day as a means of passenger transportation, we can still admire his usefulness to mankind in other ways and the rugged beauty conferred on him by nature.

WITH THE ANGLERS

The Credit River over the week-end was just about normal after being very red and high. Perhaps it's a good thing for the trout that it does go on the rampage now and then. However, it's disgusting to anglers when they are looking forward to week-end fishing.

Next year we hope to be able to catch trout in all our local streams. With the consent of the land owners, of course. We will have our club to thank for that if it is a success. So spread the news around and let's turn out 100 per cent at a meeting in the very near future. Bills will be posted. Sunday night will be best so everybody will be able to attend. We can talk it over and then have an organizer come out about a week later and tell us just what they do at different clubs.

Some nice fish were taken last week from the Credit and other waters. We notice in the Telegram "With The Anglers" that a Mr. Jim Gay, a Campbellford merchant, took a 7 and a half lb. Brown from Spring Creek. That is a very nice specimen and a record for that district, we believe.

Mac Watson took a 5 1/2 lb. German Brown, and that is probably a record for around here.

A 21" Brown was taken Saturday evening by a Toronto angler between Terra Cotta and Cheltenham.

Floyd Valey is having good luck with some husky Browns lately.

The writer of this column took three over the week-end. One was 2 lbs. 2 oz. taken on a large white bucktail.

SPORT NEWS

Speckled Trout
No doubt a large number of Brook trout were caught during the week. The Brook trout Angler would sooner catch 6 around 10" than two big Browns. Or perhaps it is just because he hasn't tangled with one yet. That reminds us, why did two ardent Brook Trout anglers dash up near Cheltenham when they heard a big one escaped from a net that was too small to hold him. It could be that they are getting the bug.

SOMETHING INTERESTING
A survey to determine the amount of fish food available for trout between Huttonville and Ingleswood is underway on a small scale. Water samples are also being taken. The Dept. of Game and Fisheries is apparently worried about Southern Ontario.

Fly traps can be seen in the rapids. They are visited every day and the catch taken out. If they find out that food is scarce they will experiment to try and increase the productivity. These flies lay their eggs in the rapids and not in the stagnant water like our No. 1 out-door enemy, the mosquito.

FIFTY-FIFTY CLUB HAS WEINER ROAST

Members of the 50-50 club of Georgetown United Church held a weiner roast last Wednesday night at Hickory Falls. The event was arranged by the committee for the evening, Mr. and Mrs. K. Richardson and Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Todd.

"Lefty" Alcott, who recently took over the job of sports director for the Town of Weston has lined up a cracker-jack team from the neighbouring villa to play against Georgetown Pirates at the Lions Dominion Day show. The game, scheduled for 10 a.m., will bring an undefeated midget team from the Toronto Midget League, featuring their star pitcher, "Goose" Gosselin. The Goose has the enviable record of allowing only four hits in five games played. He has pitched two no-hit games and one one-hit, and in one game struck out 25 men. Wonder if the Pirates can crack that streak!

Looks like a pitcher's duel next Monday after Don Herrington's record of 16 strike-outs against Oakville last night.

STEWARTTOWN

Congratulations to Barbara Cromar and Donald Lawson. Both have passed the Entrance exams in their year's work.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. A. Grant (Betty Smethurst) and their wee son who have come from Toronto to live in Stewarttown.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Bally and Dawn of Hamilton visited with Mrs. Bally on Saturday.

Mrs. E. Harris, Mrs. H. Lusty and daughters Joan and Barbara of Georgetown were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. E. Hodge Sunday.

Mr and Mrs. Pat English and son Bryce of Mimico, spent the week end Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert English.

MORE SERVICEMEN HOME

Five local servicemen returned home last week on the Ile de France, in the persons of Major Allan MacDonald, Lt. Col. Lorne Cross and Ptes. W. Clark, Mervyn Kirby and J. G. Collier.

To our knowledge, there are now only two Georgetown men still overseas—Lt. Col. John R. Barber and Cpl. Gordon King.
