BETTY SPEIGHT WEDS WILL LIVE IN TORONTO
 Standards of white delphinium, peonies and orange blossoms formed the setting in the Church of the Redeemer, Toronto for the wedding of Betty Alberta Speight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Speight of Georgetown and Mr. Frederick R. Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Edwards, Toronto, Rev. Canon R. C. Armstrong performed the double ring ceremony assisted by Rev. R. C. Todd of Georgetown. Otto James was at the organ. Before the ceremony Mrs. C. Mutton sang "Because" and during the signing of the register "Through the Years."
 The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gardenia white crepe gown with train and long veil held by a Mary Queen of Scots headdress. She carried an all-white cascade of roses, carnation petals and swainsons.
 The attendants, Miss Bonnie Blissett of St. Thomas, Miss Jeanette Sedore, Whittby, and Mrs. J. Scott, Toronto, were gowned alike in Shanghai blue crepe with matching Mary Queen of Scots headdress and self leaf trim. They carried fuchsia cascades of mixed flowers.
 The groom's attendant was Ernest Birch and the ushers were George Jacques and Gordon Birch all of Toronto.
 During the reception at Sherbourne House Club, Mrs. Speight received in a lovely dress of petal pink crepe, with black accessories and blue corsage, assisted by the groom's mother, wearing charrreuse crepe, mocha accessories and coral corsage.
 For a trip to the States the bride chose a lace trimmed romance blue crepe dress with brown accessories and a waist corsage of pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards will live in Toronto.

BEAUMONT-BRAY WEDDING IN MIDLAND
 A recent marriage of interest was that of Miss Agnes E. Bray, Reg. N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milford J. Bray, Midland, and Mr. Richard H. Beaumont, Toronto, son of Mr. William H. Beaumont, Glen Williams. The wedding took place in St. Paul's United Church, Midland on Saturday, June 29th, with Rev. Walter R. Auld officiating. Miss Kathleen Smith was at the organ and Mrs. Dickson Roe sang.
 Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a graceful gown of white dotted nylon with finger-tip veil, and carried a cascade of sweetheart roses, Miss Jane Allen, Toronto, was bridesmaid, wearing blue dotted nylon, and Miss Deborah Bray, Cochrane, junior bridesmaid, chose pink. They carried harmonizing flowers.
 Mr. Norman Marchmont, Glen Williams, was groomsmen, and the ushers were Mr. Ralph Custer, Swift Current, Sask., and Mr. Frank Bray.
 After a honeymoon trip, they will take up residence in Toronto where the groom is studying for his chartered accountant's degree with the firm of Arthur B. Crowley and Co.

GEORGE FERRY WEDS WASHAGO GIRL
 Behind a background of white carnations, roses and ferns, the marriage of Catharine Elizabeth Fawcett to George H. Ferry, was solemnized by Rev. P. D. Lockwood at St. Paul's Anglican Church, Washago, at 4 o'clock on Saturday, June 22nd.
 The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Fawcett of Washago and the groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ferry of Washago and formerly of Georgetown. Mrs. N. D. Marshall aunt of the bride played the wedding music and during the ceremony Miss Maxine Marshall cousin of the bride sang "Oh Perfect Love."
 The bride wore a gown of double tulle with silk veil made in coronet style trimmed with pearls from her mother's wedding gown. The matron of honour, Mrs. Gordon Copeland of Brampton, sister of the groom, and junior bridesmaid, Miss Jean Cannon, of Toronto, attended the bride.
 Mrs. Copeland wore a blue crepe dress and carried pink roses and fern and Miss Cannon wore a rose dress and carried cream roses and fern. Both wore halos of white flowers with veils.
 Mr. H. A. Fawcett, brother of the bride, was best man and ushers included Mr. Harold Brady, uncle of the bride and Mr. Stan Brockbank, cousin of the bride.
 Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, at which Mrs. Fawcett received, wearing a flowered jersey dress with white accessories and corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother wore a powder-blue jersey gown with white accessories and corsage of pink roses.
 After the reception, the happy couple left on a trip to points north, the bride travelling in a moss green suit with brown accessories. On their return, they will live in Washago.
 About 65 friends attended a miscellaneous shower held at the home of the bride's parents on Monday, June 17.

McENERY — WATSON WEDDING
 Baskets of pink and white peonies and Canterbury bells before an arch of evergreens was the setting for a pretty wedding on Saturday, June 29 on the lawn of the family homestead near Acton, when Mary Irma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Watson, was united in marriage to Robert Lloyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie McEnery, 8th line, Erin, Rev. A. W. Fosbury of Acton performed the ceremony, Miss Vera Mears of Toronto played the wedding music.
 The bride, given in marriage by her father was lovely in a gown of brocaded mousseline de soie, with sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and full skirt. Her fingertip veil was caught to a halo of white roses and she carried a shower bouquet of red roses and maiden-hair fern.
 The bride's sister, Miss Lois Watson, was bridesmaid in a gown of blue lace over taffeta, carrying a bouquet of pink and rose carnations.
 Mr. Lloyd McLean was groomsmen. During the signing of the register Mrs. Dawson sang "I Love You Truly". The bride's mother received, wearing a printed navy dress with black accessories and corsage of red roses. Mrs. McEnery assisted wearing a fuchsia crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.
 The bride's table was set with her great grandmother's wedding dishes. The happy couple left amid a shower of good wishes for Pink, Michigan. For traveling, the bride wore a white Jersey dress with brown accessories, a brown check shorty coat and a corsage of pink roses.
