Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goldham, who celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at their home on John Street last Thursday, July 18th.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hillock and children Dianpe and Glenwright and Mrs. Kay Bludd, Marlene and Terry, have returned from a vacation at Ervill Lodge, Wasaga Beach.

Amongst week-end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Wodson were Mrs. Peter Kirkness (Women's Patriotic League), Miss Edith Duncan and Miss Elizabeth Rhoads of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blehn and Carolyn and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McNally and David spent a few days last week with Mrs. C. E. Blehn at her cottage at Inverhuron Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warren and daughter Louise of Chicago, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Sutton of Gary, Indiana, visited for the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bullivant.

Mrs. William Bonathan and Judy spent last week at Alcona Beach, Lake Simcoe, with Mr. and Mrs. James Weatherston and Linda of Toronto. Mr. Bonathan spent the week-end with them.

Sgt. Alan Young, formerly of Georgetown, has joined the Interim Forces and is now stationed at the Dept. of National Defence C.M.H.Q., Ottawa. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Young, who now make their home in Peterborough.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. Howard Hillock were Mr. and Mrs. R. Woon and daughter Roberta, Miss Florence Van Slyke, Mr. M. G. Hillock and son Grant and Capt. and Mrs. J. Hart, all of Toronto.

Visitors during the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Lyons included Mr. and Mrs. Ross Campbell, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Colin MacIntosh, Aylmer, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barrett, Brampton.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Hill, Loran, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simpson and Mrs. Cumber and daughter of Weston and Miss Teer, Toronto, were week-end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Hill, King St.

Mrs. Harold Tost (Jessie Hill) was tendered several showers and presentations prior to her marriage last Saturday. Mrs. James Dobbie was hostess for a miscellaneous shower and Mrs. Percy Hill gave a kitchen shower. Members of Knox Church choir presented her with an electric toaster and the Young Women's Auxiliary with a Sixes coffee maker. On the Tuesday preceding her marriage, her mother, Mrs. Edward Hill held a trousseau tea at her home on Guelph Street. Receiving with her was the groom's mother, Mrs. Albert Tost. Mrs. Charles Ward of Stouffville and Mrs. Herbert Harlow poured tea and tea-room assistants were Mrs. James Dobbie, Mrs. Harold Wheeler, Mrs. Jack Cunningham, Mrs. Percy Hill and Mrs. Clarence Reith, Seaford.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. J. R. Scott has been confined to Toronto General Hospital where he has been taking treatments for the past few weeks, and hope he will soon be home again.

Prior to her marriage last Saturday to Harvey Lawr, Miss Pauline Norton and the neighbours in College View gave a surprise miscellaneous shower for Teresa Wilcox at her home on Victoria Street. The bride-elect was also honoured with a presentation from fellow employees at Smith & Stone, Ltd. of an end table, coffee maker and a cheque.

Prior to moving to Goderich recently Mrs. Erwin Lewis was entertained by the neighbours on George Street at the home of Mrs. William Hayward when some twenty friends gathered for a farewell party. A social evening and games were enjoyed and Mrs. Lewis was presented with a salad bowl. Group 2 of the United Church W. A. presented her with a pyrex tea pot. The Women's Institute also made a presentation to her at one of their meetings and the staff of the Bell Telephone office gave her a farewell gift.

Mrs. Clarence Hayes was in Kingston last week, where she gave a lecture on the work of the Women's Institute to a class in the Community Leadership course at Queen's University summer school. She will give a similar lecture at the University of Western Ontario in London this week and at McMaster University later this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blyth and Mr. and Mrs. Horace Blyth and Sharon are moving to their new home on the 7th line, Nassagaweya, this week. Mr. Blyth sold his farm near the Glen last spring. Horace will continue to work at the Alliance Paper Mill in town. Their new farm is about ten miles from Georgetown and five miles from Acton.

Mrs. Roy Barker has joined her husband in town and they are living for the summer in Miss Laura Scott's apartment in the Valleyview Apartments. Mr. Barker came here a few months ago as manager of the Dominion Store. Both served with the army during the war, Mrs. Barker having been a nursing sister overseas.
