ENGAGEMENT

Mrs. E. Perron of Ottawa announces the engagement of her youngest daughter Madeline to Sgt. Alan Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Young, Peterborough. The wedding to take place on Saturday, August 17th in Ottawa.

PUCKERING—BROWN

A very pretty wedding took place in Mapleton United Church on Wednesday, July 17th at 2 p.m., when Ina Al-mira, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Brown, Mapleton, Camb. Co., N.S. was united in marriage with George Clifford, youngest son of Mrs. Elizabeth Puckering and the late Robert Puckering of Terra - Cotta, Rev. Raymond Cunningham of Southampton was the officiating clergyman.

Mrs. Clair Winters, sister of the bride, played the nuptial music and during the signing of the register Mrs. Vernon Brown sang "O Perfect Love." Friends of the bride had decorated the church very attractively with cut flowers and ferns, the bridal party standing under an arch decorated with asparagus fern and pink roses.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, looking lovely in a floor length gown of heavy white satin with fitted bodice and sweetheart neckline, and wearing a fingertip veil, held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a double strand of pearls, the gift of the groom, and she carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and maiden-hair fern.

The bride was attended by her niece Miss Charlotte Lavers as bridesmaid, who wore a floor length gown of peach net over satin, dotted with bows of blue ribbon, and a short head veil held in place by a wreath of summer flowers. The maid-of-honour was Miss Helen Wood of Amherst, an intimate friend of the bride, and she wore a floor length gown of pink sheer over satin with gold sequin trimming, and her veil was of pink net held in place with a wreath of summer flowers. Both the bridesmaid and the maid-of-honour carried bouquets of pink roses and fern.

The groom was supported by Mr. Kenneth Thompson of Springhill, a nephew of the bride. The ushers were Messrs. Logan and Vernon Brown, brothers of the bride. The maid-of-honour was presented with a lovely compact, while the bridesmaid, soloist, and organist received gold earrings and the groomsmen a gold tie pin.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held for some fifty relatives and friends, at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth, centered with an artistically decorated three-tier wedding cake (made by Mrs. Logan Brown), which was flanked on either side with tall tapers in crystal holders.

Later in the evening amidst showers of confetti and good wishes the young couple left by motor for a short honeymoon trip to points of interest in Nova Scotia. The bride travelled in a smart, two-piece dressmaker suit of rose wool, with white accessories and a topcoat of light blue. Prior to her marriage, the bride, who had been employed as cashier with Douglas & Co., hardware merchants of Amherst for several years, was honored by a "shower" given by her girl friends at the home of Mrs. Sutherland, Amherst, when she received many lovely gifts and was also presented with a reversible all-wool blanket and a Presto cooker from the office staff and employees of Douglas & Co. Also before her marriage, the bride was honored by a largely attended miscellaneous "shower" at the home of her parents in Mapleton when she received a large array of useful and beautiful gifts. The shower and wedding gifts consisted of cash, silver, linens, china and pyrex ware.

Mr. and Mrs. Puckering left by train on Monday, July 22nd, for Toronto where they will make their future home.

Douglas Maplesden who lived in town a few years before joining the air force, with which he served in Newfoundland, has successfully passed his senior matriculation exams at Kitchener Rehabilitation School, and plans to enter the veterinary course at O.A.C. next fall. With Mrs. Maplesden and the children, he has been living in Acton since his discharge from the R.C.A.F.
