2 PAGES OF CARTOON FEATURES IN EVERY ISSUE

Yes, they're coming every day to The Globe and Mail. New cartoon features... new adventure strips... new enjoyable, laughable characters... to add a new zest and life to our comic pages... to give you a new lift, and the odd chuckle that starts your day off right.

STEWARTTOWN

Miss Evalonne Smith is holidaying with her sister, Mrs. W. Huffman at St. Catharines.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith, Gail, Danny and David enjoyed a couple of days motoring, spending one day at Burlington Beach.
Mr. J. Sanford and Mrs. E. Sanford spent the week end at Waubeshene.
Mrs. Harrison of Toronto is visiting with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Smith.
Mr. E. Bally of Toronto was home on Saturday.
Mrs. W. Hodge, Betty and Pat Barrow spent a day at Sunnyside, Toronto last week.
Stewarttown is badly in need of a speed limit. With so many small children it is not safe the way some of the motorists tear through the village.
Mr. Walter Lawson has made some additions to his mill, put up some new fencing and painted the mill and his residence — all of which has added to its appearance.
Mr. Joe Standish has put a new fence around his property and painted it, making a great improvement to that part of the village.
Mr. Donald Lawson spent last week holidaying at Belwood with his grandmother.
Mr. and Mrs. John Standish and Miss Christena Dickenson enjoyed a motor trip last week to Goderich, Owen Sound, Meaford and Barrie.

count, too...

THAT'S WHY WE SPECIALIZE IN GIVING YOUR CAR SUPERIOR WASHING SERVICE.

NO MATTER HOW OLD YOUR CAR IS, IT REPRESENTS A LARGE INVESTMENT. FREQUENT WASHING AND POLISHING OF YOUR CAR WILL NOT ONLY PRESERVE THE FINISH AND MAINTAIN A SMART APPEARANCE, BUT WILL INCREASE ITS "TRADE IN" VALUE.
