BALLINAFAD

A large number attended the sale of household effects of Mrs. Soper in the village Saturday afternoon. We all wish her good health in her new home in Acton.

Harvest has been delayed these days owing to showery weather but anyone who has threshed reports a bumper crop.

Next Sunday the church services will be in charge of the Women's Missionary Society when a speaker from Africa will be present. The service will be held in the evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Shortill and their daughter, Mary Jane of Winnipeg are holidaying with F. W. Shortills' and calling on many old acquaintances of the community.

Mrs. Robt. Heath of Titusville, Pennsylvania, spent a few days last week at the Shortill Homestead.

The W. A. held their August meeting at the home of Mrs. Jesse McEnery on Tuesday afternoon. Owing to the busy season the attendance wasn't as usual but considerable business was transacted.

QUEEN STREET TO BE RE-SURFACED

A local improvement which has been needed for years will get underway next month when Queen Street will be resurfaced. A by-law authorizing this was passed at Monday night's Council meeting. The resurfacing was planned last year, but was held up when a sewerage system was contemplated. With sewerage virtually abandoned for the present and the road in a deplorable state, it was thought best to proceed with the resurfacing this year.

William Barber and Margaret Brown Wed In Limehouse Church

Limehouse Presbyterian Church decorated with gladioli, phlox and fern was the setting for the very pretty wedding on Saturday, August 17 of Margaret Elizabeth Brown, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Brown of R. R. 4, Acton and William Harold Barber, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Barber of R. R. 1, Acton. Rev. W. Argyle Campbell of Keene, performed the ceremony and the wedding music was played by Miss Doris Mitchell of Limehouse.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a gown of white brocaded silk. Her long veil of white net was caught by a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of red roses and fern. Her bridesmaid was Miss Anne Bowman of Georgetown who wore a floor length gown of pale blue net over taffeta. Her headdress was also of blue net caught by deeper blue flowers and she carried a nosegay of sweet peas. Thelma Brown only sister of the bride was flower girl gowned in blue crepe and headdress of pink roses and carrying a basket of sweet peas. The bride's train was carried by little Tommy Williams of Weston.

Mr. Charles Barber was his brother's groomsman. The ushers were Harold Brown, brother of the bride and Merwyn Barber, brother of the groom.

During the signing of the register Mrs. Kirby Williams of Weston sang very beautifully "I'll Walk Beside You."

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride where Mrs. Brown received in a dress of teal blue crepe, with black accessories and corsage of red roses. Mrs. Barber chose turquoise blue crepe with white accessories and corsage of red roses.

For travelling the bride changed to a dressmaker suit of beige gabardine with green accessories.

After a honeymoon trip to Toronto and Northern Ontario the happy couple will reside on their farm at R. R. 4, Acton.

Guests attending the wedding were from Toronto, Guelph, Weston, Milton, Acton, Sunderland, Georgetown and Limehouse.

ENGAGEMENT

Mrs. A. Ostrander announces the engagement of her daughter, Phyllis Mildred, to Arnold Morphet, son of Mrs. R. Morphet of Elm, Saskatchewan. The wedding will take place in Georgetown on August 25th.
