RECREATIONAL THIS AND THAT

(by H. J. N.)
 The cool days and cooler nights are beginning to make the young and old think of things to do as the daylight gets shorter. Hobby talk is in the air. A number of boys and girls have brought their stamp collections around to the director's office. I have also seen Jack MacLaren's special collection of U.S. and Canadian stamps which he has mounted in a most attractive way. It is hoped to show some of these at the Georgetown Fall Fair on Sept. 6 - 7, as a start for the Stamp Collection Club. It is hoped that an Adult Club will be formed sometime in September and a Junior Club for boys and girls early in the Fall. Members of the adult Club will help the juniors with advice and talks during the winter months.

We have another big event scheduled for September — an event which will thrill all dance lovers, young and old. On September 24, the Lifebuoy Debators of radio fame will come to the Old Town Hall. Dancing will commence at 9 and close off at 1 p.m. If you like to see a radio band in action, reserve September 24th. It's open to the public — more details later. But keep that date open.

The Lorne Scots Band and the Georgetown Fire Brigade put the open tug-of-war on their programme for Labour Day at the Park. Remember on the Civic Holiday the Veterans from the local Canadian Legion challenged the Smith & Stone team who had just won the Herald trophy, but Smith and Stone team weren't having any at that time. Now comes the challenge from S & S. The veterans think that the McCormack Trophy would look nice on their fire place mantel for the rest of the year. Maybe so, but S & S think otherwise. Should be a good exhibition of rope tugging.

Teen Towners are still going strong on Friday nights. The crowd was bigger than ever last week and the swing kids hope to jam the Old Town Hall when the School reopens. Bill Millere has a new record player that gives off with twelve numbers without the usual fumbling and is as happy as a kid with a chocolate bar. Incidentally, Bill, where do you get all those chocolate bars?

There are two bare foot addicts at the dances these past few Friday nights. Reminds me of colored folks on the Mississippi mud flats. They sure can patter out a rhythm. The Teeners had a guest from the West End Y.M.C.A. Friday night Teen Club and an invitation was extended to the locals to visit Toronto some time this year.

Our thanks this week goes to Bill McNally and Paul Barber for a quantity of wood which they donated to the Recreational Council. The wood will eventually be turned into bird-houses, boats, and what-have-you by the young boys of the town. At the moment, we are very short of small tools such as hammers, saws, chisels, etc. We can't buy the cheaper variety and the good ones are too expensive. If you have some old tools which you can spare for boys work we certainly would appreciate them.

COLD WEATHER CUTS ATTENDANCE AT ST. GEORGE'S FAIR

Various groups in St. George's church combined to present a church fair on the lovely grounds at the church last Saturday afternoon and evening. An extremely cold day made attendance much smaller than anticipated but it is estimated that about $150 will be realized for the fund being raised to pay for the renovations in the church basement.

In the afternoon, the Daughters of the Church had a sale of home made baking and served afternoon tea, while the ladies of the W.A. were busy in the hot dog and hamburger booth. The Sunday School was in charge of the soft drinks and the Tennis Club held an open tournament and served ice-cream. There was a fish pond for the kiddies.

St. George's Club arranged the evening garden party of local talent which included tenor soloist Tom Warnes; Marlene Bludd and Diane Hillock, tap dancing and songs; Kenneth Harrison, piano selections, and Fred Warnes, tap dancing. Irene Mitchell May, of Brampton, was accompanist and Ven. W. G. O. Thompson acted as master-of-ceremonies. Also on the program was Mr. Dyer of Hillsburgh, who won the old time fiddlers' contest at Stanley Park, Erin, last week.

During the intermission, Paul Barber conducted contests. Mrs. May won the ladies nail driving with seven hits, and Jack England, who tied with Bill McNally at five for the men, won in the tie-breaker. Kathleen Coxie excelled at throwing the rolling pin, with Mrs. Tom Warnes close second. A Dutch auction provided novelty, with Marilyn Warnes being the lucky winner.

—Monday next is a public holiday, Labor Day.

GEORGETOWN BANTAMS WIN 2-0 FROM WESTON

Rain nearly sunk the G.R.C. Bantam Baseball team's second attempt with Gord Alcott's Weston kids last Wednesday night. Before game time the field was liberally sprayed and the last two innings kept the spectators on the hop between the field and grandstand. But the kids played on.

The game was a dandy. Errors were few and hits were as scarce as soap flakes. Don Herrington was on the mound for the locals and a little saw-ed-off kid by the name of Jaga baffled the home towners with his south paw slants. Herrington fanned seven of the Westontes and issued two free passes. Jaga whiffed nine of the locals, but gave five trips to first one of which was eventually good for a count. That was in the lucky fifth for Georgetown. Keith King took a base and stole second when Andy Anderson struck out. "Pee Wee" Huffman smacked out a nice single for the first hit of the game and Keith crossed the pan with the first run. Don Herrington made sure of his own game by smacking out another single on the first ball pitched and "Pee Wee" slid over home plate, making the count two to nothing.

That's the way the game ended after another inning of play. Darkness prevented the usual seven innings.

A little half-pint by the name of Hurren played a stellar game at short for the visitors, while Walters at first and McFarland who took over the receiver's position for the night looked good for the locals. All in all, the players for both teams put on a heads up game.

The teams:
 WESTON — Head, Grant, McConnel, B. Morris, Hurren, Anderson, Grainger, Jaga, McCartney.
 GEORGETOWN — K. King, Anderson, I. Huffman, D. Herrington, Bill Arnold, Jim Kirkwood, Jim Golden, Earl Walters, Bill McFarland.

The Score:
