Mr. Newton then called the young couple forward and quite a number of gifts were opened and presented to them. After lunch the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

BALLINAFAD

Prior to her marriage last Saturday to Mr. John Charles Burt of Hillsburgh, Miss Doris Smith was tendered a miscellaneous shower by the Legion W.A., at the home of Mrs. William Taylor in Georgetown. Mrs. Bernard Tennant assisted in opening the many lovely gifts received.
On Tuesday, August 27th, residents of Ballinafad community gathered at the Hall to honour the young couple. Mr. Lloyd Marshall acted as chairman for a program which included humorous readings by Mrs. Jesse McEnery and Miss W. Ivens, a vocal duet by Mrs. Norman Sinclair and Joanna Shortill, musical selection by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McEnery and a recitation by Beth McEnery. Miss Betty Ridler read an address to the bride and groom after which they were called forward and presented with a number of gifts. After lunch was served, dancing was enjoyed to the music of Shortill's Orchestra.

TRAFALGAR TOWNSHIP HISTORY REVIEWED AT W.I. MEETING

At the August meeting of Drumquin Women's Institute, held at the home of Mrs. G. Featherstone, an interesting account of the early settlers of Trafalgar Township was given by Mrs. Lester.
The district was originally covered with a dense forest of high pine trees so close together that the sun could scarcely penetrate.

In 1818, five men and their families arrived at Muddy York early in June. They were John Dempsey, John Fisher, Abe Nelson, Thos. Joyce and John Wilson. They came by stage along Dundas street to Munn's Corners then up the 8th Line (then only a blazed trail) through the forest, until they reached the base line. There under two elm trees, the five men slept one July night. There was much danger and hard work in their enterprise with wolves, and bears in abundance, and travelling at night fraught with real danger. But they had stout hearts and courage. For food there was plenty of hunting and the sixteen creek was alive with salmon and a box filled in a few moments. In 1836, a steam saw mill was built and timber was teamed down the 7th line to Oakville harbor and taken away in schooners.
By this time Hornby was quite a busy place with 3 hotels and stores. The first school house was built in 1828, a log building and stood beside the Orange Hall. So from a dense forest has come fair lands, good comfortable homes and all through a few brave men and women, who braved danger and loneliness to lay the foundations for all we enjoy today.

Master Theodore Binkly is attending boys' camp on Bellwood Lake.
Miss Pearl Keeler of Toronto is visiting at the home of Mrs. H. Keeler.

The monthly meeting of the Cedarvale W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. A. Griffen on Wednesday afternoon August 21, where they entertained the Conningsby Institute, 28 were present. The meeting opened with the opening ode followed by the Lord's Prayer. Roll call was "The name of an article in your home made in Guelph."

Mrs. D. Hurren, president, welcomed the Conningsby Institute, and Mrs. E. Reilly then took charge of the program.

It being Mrs. Angus McArthur's birthday, they opened by singing her favorite hymn "Blest Be the Tie that Binds", accompanied at the piano by Mrs. M. Graham. Her favorite scripture, John 14, was read by Mrs. Harry Matheson. Mrs. F. Root gave a recitation and Mrs. M. Graham an instrumental. Mrs. Collins, who is a member of the Salvation Army, gave a wonderful talk on the work that they do.

Mrs. C. Burt played on her accordion "Let Me Call You Sweetheart." Conningsby and Cedarvale then chose partners for a contest on "Something you plant" conducted by Eleanor Graham. Mrs. R. L. Davidson and Mrs. M. Graham were winners.

Mrs. Root on behalf of the Conningsby Institute, then spoke a few words. The meeting was closed by the National Anthem. A donated luncheon was served and the social hour spent.

"FOREST FIRE"

Based upon a picture painted for Carling's by William Book.

This is one of a series of illustrations on the subject of the Conservation of Canada's natural assets designed to emphasize the fact that the beauties of unspoiled nature that we enjoy today are a precious heritage which we must protect for tomorrow.

"Forest Fire—The Common Enemy"

The scream of a rabbit pierces the hissing roar of the forest fire as a tall spruce bursts into flame like an oil-soaked rag. A deer, wild-eyed with terror, bursts from the undergrowth and makes for the protecting waters of a small lake where other creatures of the wild, forgetting all lesser fears, stand huddled together, shivering with fear of fire—their common enemy.

Crackling and hissing, its advance-line of windblown sparks reaching far ahead, the forest fire takes its terrible toll of wild life and forest wealth. In its wake nothing is left but blackened tree-trunks and desolation.

A lurid picture? Yes, but a true picture, and one that is seen all too frequently in Canada's forest lands. Statistics show that out of 6,000 forest fires in Canada every year, only one in six owes its origin to natural causes (lightning, etc.) The rest are caused by human agencies, and can be prevented.

As a shareholder in Canada's natural wealth, every Canadian has a vital interest in conservation. And conservation is the concern of all who are interested in the continuance of our national economy and our future prosperity, rather than the concern of a chosen few. The success of conservation measures depends upon the full support of all Canadian citizens.
