

LAST MINUTE NEWS ON THE Sport of Kings

MAJOR TRACK RESULTS

HANDICAPS

RACING DATES

GOSSIP FROM TRAINERS AND JOCKEYS

LATEST WORKOUTS ... THUNDERING HOOPS

APPAS TAPPAS DAILY SPECIAL

You'll enjoy the full and complete racing news in The Globe and Mail... all the dope, right from the "oat bin" of every major track on the continent. And this complete racing coverage is only ONE of the many popular features in every issue of The Globe and Mail... delivered to your door every morning.

The Globe and Mail
FEATURE FOR FEATURE... YOUR BEST NEWSPAPER

KARN — MEREDITH WEDDING

A pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday, August 31st, in the United Church, Acton, when Helen Agnes Meredith, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Meredith, Limehouse, became the bride of Mr. Emmanuel William Karn, son of Mr. Wm. O. and the late Mrs. Karn of Montreal. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. W. Fosbury.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked charming in a floor-length gown of white satin with overdress of net and lace, sweetheart neckline and fitted bodice. She wore matching mittens and carried a bouquet of red roses, bouvardia and white heather made in the form of a horse-shoe. The bride's only attendant was Miss Ethel Karn of Montreal, sister of the groom, who looked lovely in a floor-length gown of lime green crepe with head-dress of purple flowers and green net and matching purple elbow gloves. She carried a nosegay of Tallman roses, bouvardia and violet larkspur.

The groom was assisted by Mr. Jack Noble, cousin of the bride. Ushers were Mr. Russell Karn, brother of the groom and Mrs. Jas. Schofield, all of whom served overseas with the groom. Miss Ethel Franklin of Acton, presided at the organ and during the signing of the register Mrs. Robt. Shaw of Toronto, rendered a solo "Because."

After the ceremony a reception was held in Limehouse Memorial Hall, where the bride's mother received wearing a powder blue ensemble of crepe and lace with black accessories and corsage of red roses, assisted by the groom's sister, Mrs. Ray Miller of Brampton wearing a dress of brown crepe and sequins with matching accessories and corsage of red roses.

The bride's table was decorated with pink streamers, sweet peas, and white heather, centred with the bride's cake and four white candles in silver holders.

For the wedding trip to Northern Ontario, the bride chose for travelling a sky blue silk jersey dress pastel blue top-coat, black accessories and corsage of red roses.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold heart-shaped wrist-watch, and to the groomsmen a silver cigarette case. The bride's gift to the groom was a silver cigarette case and to the bridesmaid a gold compact.

Out-of-town guests were from Montreal, Toronto, Kitchener, Baden, Brampton, Cheltenham, Acton, Georgetown, Inglewood and Glen Williams.

WINDOW DEDICATED AT ST. ALBAN'S TO CLARENCE BEAUMONT

A large congregation, including the Lorne Scots Band, and representatives from the Canadian Legion, was present at St. Alban's Church, Glen Williams at three o'clock on Sunday afternoon last, when the new window depicting St. Alban, the patronal saint of the Church, was presented, unveiled and dedicated.

After the processional hymn, which was a version of "O Canada" the Rector called the family of Matthew Beaumont and the Churchwardens of St. Alban's to form a group with him beside the window. He pronounced the invocation then said "In devout and loving memory of Clarence Beaumont, killed in action in defence of our freedom on August 28th, 1945, in Holland, this window is presented to St. Alban's Church, Glen Williams. Clarence was baptized and confirmed in this Church, attended Sunday School and worshipped here. I now ask his brother, Delmar, to present this beautiful window and I request his mother to unveil it."

Delmar Beaumont then said, "We present this window to St. Alban's Church, in memory of Clarence, and we now unveil our gift to the Lord's House." At the word "unveil" Mrs. Matthew Beaumont removed the flag covering the window, which was then revealed in its beauty.

Mr. Montague Merryday, People's warden, standing with Mr. Arthur Beaumont, his brother warden, said, "As churchwardens of St. Alban's Church we accept this devout offering according the thanks of the congregation therefore. And we now request the Archdeacon, our Rector, to perform the act of dedication."

This was done in the following words "To the Glory of God, in loving memory of our well-beloved in Christ Clarence Beaumont, and for the beautifying of this the Lord's House, we now dedicate this window, in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen."

After prayers and hymn 337, the service of Evensong proceeded with psalm 23 sung, and a special lesson from Revelations read.

The hymns "My own dear land," "Jerusalem the golden," and "Hark, hark, my soul" were sung.

The Rector preached from the last verse of the twenty-third psalm "Thy loving kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever. We pass through the valley of the shadow of death, but the preparation is "through" not "in." Therefore, after the gloomy road through the valley, we emerge beyond into the glorious sunshine of God's love. Clarence is a martyr in a cause worth dying for, and the window in his memory depicts Britain's first martyr, St. Alban. Clarence would have been twenty-five years old today as this is his birthday.

"God's rest to the noble dead," said the preacher. "God's consolation to those who loved him. God's warning voice to all — to you — So live that you may die that you may live."

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir

Sept. 9, 1946

I am giving the answer to the person who laid a complaint about the goats being at large in Stewarttown. Well, no one is in favour of them running loose but when you have them in chains and some one takes them off what can you do about it. That was the cause of the trouble and they are at large now and I have not been able to catch them yet. So you cannot blame the owner of the goats. Fair play and a square deal is all I care about. The party who is getting the blame does not own the goats so do not throw stones where there are glass windows. A lover of a garden

NEW PUBLISHER AT STREETSVILLE

Tony Mendell, city editor of the Windsor Daily Star, has purchased the Streetsville Review, and took over the editing of the paper last week. Mr. Mendell is well-known around this district, being an Elora boy and a former staff member of the Guelph Mercury. He succeeds Mr. O. R. Church, publisher at Streetsville for many years, whose falling health necessitated his retirement.

ROSEDALE GREENHOUSE
CUT FLOWERS
Wedding and Funeral Design Work
PHONE 283J
Murdock St. We Deliver

EASY MONEY

REGAL'S new Framed Gift Pictures of an Ideal Christmas Gifts Sell for $1. Learn the interesting details. Up to 50% clear profit. Write NOW for agent's list. REGAL'S REGALIZATION CO. LTD. 1277-1279 Bloor St. W., Toronto, Ont. or 1401 St. V. Hastings St., Vancouver, B.C.

NEW Framed Gift Pictures

WHITMEE TAXI

PHONE—241

Gruen Watches
Fine Diamonds
L. A. KEULEMAN
Jeweler
Phone 456 — Brampton

CHICKENS

Custom chicken picking with latest machinery; also highest market price paid for fowl alive or dressed; culling flocks a specialty — Huttonville Egg Grading Station, Brampton 343. (reverse charges.)

SMALL LATHE WORK
and motor rebushing
Starter and Generator Repairs
Guaranteed Precision Work with our new lathes
Guy Wilson
ASEGROVE

Flowers
"For Every Occasion"
DESIGN WORK A SPECIALTY
We Deliver
Norton Floral
Phone 225 Georgetown

GET YOUR ORDER IN NOW
for a
SANTIZOR
Vacuum Cleaner
FOR CHRISTMAS DELIVERY.
Fruit Juice, Extracts, Medicines
D.D.T. and Fly sprays
DICK RIDDALL
Phone 456

MEMORIAL WINDOW DEDICATED AT ST. GEORGE'S

On Sunday morning, Archdeacon Thompson dedicated a beautiful window depicting "Ruth" in loving memory of the late Elva Goldina Blackburn, nee Arnold. This window, made by McCauslands of Toronto, has been on order for nearly a year and is presented to St. George's by the family. It is situated on the south side of the church in the central pair, near the pew which Mrs. Blackburn was accustomed to occupy.

At the conclusion of the processional hymn on Sunday morning, the Rector proceeded to the window, and conducted the brief service of Dedication, announcing the gift and then saying "To the glory of God, in loving memory of our well-beloved in Christ, Elva Goldina Blackburn, and for the beautifying of this the Lord's House, we now dedicate this window in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen."

Prayers were offered for the gift and the donors, and the special hymn, No. 337, for the dedication of gifts, was sung.

Members of the Woman's Auxiliary, of which Mrs. Blackburn was an officer, were present, as also a good representation of the Rebekahs. The flowers on the altar were placed there by Mrs. Blackburn's "unknown friend" in that organization.

The Rector, preaching from the text "And now, Lord, what is my hope? Truly my hope is ever in Thee," spoke of the only true refuge of humanity, our hope in Christ, described Mrs. Blackburn as a Christian and Churchwoman who relied on that hope; one who had made an important contribution to Church and town life; and whose death left a gap difficult to fill. He held out the Christian hope as the only refuge for the children of men. He accepted, with the appreciation and gratitude of the officials and people of St. George's, the beautiful gift from the Blackburn family.

CANADA UNLIMITED — The Formative Years

Wings for the Youth of Empire

FROM THE FAR CORNERS of the Empire they came—bronzed striplings from the Antipodes, pink-cheeked youths from England, lads from India and from the Indies—to train for the greatest battle of all time under the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan.

Over Canadian prairies, forests and towns they won their wings, and with them flew the youth of Canada, closely integrated in a new unity of purpose and a new understanding. Their courage, and the skill they learned in Canadian skies, held the enemy at bay during the dark years of the war and provided a flashing spearhead for the final victory... We shall be forever indebted to them.

contribution towards the winning of the war, but equally important, it was a portent of future greatness, for out of such unified and far-reaching efforts will come the Canada of tomorrow—Canada Unlimited.

CANADA UNLIMITED

— Canada Unlimited —

The training of 225,000 men for air force duty was a major Canadian

1846
One of a series depicting the growth of Canada as a nation, produced by O'Keefe's on the occasion of their 100th anniversary.
1946

Get your wedding invitations at The Herald, Phone No. 8.