Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Tyers Celebrate Silver Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Tyers celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary last Sunday when twenty-eight members of the family and friends gathered at their home on Joseph Street to enjoy a delicious meal which included an anniversary cake decorated by their daughter, Katharine. They received a number of silver gifts and a bouquet of twenty-five roses from the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyers, who were formerly Mary Katharine Edwards, were married at St. Joseph's Church, Stratford, on September 27th, 1921. Guests on Sunday included their bridesmaid, Miss S. E. Edwards, Toronto, and groomsmen, Mr. T. Kelly, Stratford, and other guests were present from Stratford, Dublin, Kitchener, Chicago, Ill., Toronto and Georgetown. Dinner was served by their daughters, assisted by Misses Kay Boyle and Marion Walkinshaw.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Editor
The Herald
Dear Sir:

As a result of the very generous response by the public to the Tag Day last Saturday for the Institute for the Blind, I feel that some sort of public recognition is in order. The proceeds from tag selling alone amounted to $198. — which makes Georgetown's contribution equal with, and I think above, those of Milton and Acton.

We are especially grateful to those girls who walked miles to canvass houses and who stood for hours on the street selling tags. Without them a tag day wouldn't be possible. Every one who contributed may be assured that money collected will be used to good effect. It provides a free braille library service and radios for many who have only this means of keeping in touch with the world. It provides help for those whose disability prevents them from helping themselves and trains others who would otherwise be a burden on society to be self-sufficient.

On behalf of those who cannot see, thank you for your generosity.
Margaret Bell

(Representative to the Halton Advisory Board from Countess of Brathmore Chapter, I.O.E.)

SENDS SOUVENIRS FROM SCOTLAND

Mrs. Mary Ferrier, who has often visited in town with Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Grive, is at present enjoying a visit to Scotland and last week sent some souvenirs to the Grive family. Mrs. Grive received a sprig of heather and Mr. Grive a replica of the "Lascitania" medal, designed in Germany and distributed during the first war to commemorate the sinking of the American passenger ship. Profits accruing from the sale of the medals are turned over to St. Dunstan's Blind Soldiers and Sailors Hostel.

The family left the district and settled in the U.S.A. about forty years ago. Miss Lynn, who was seventy-three years old, was a retired school-

By the way, one of our not-so-starry athletes picked up the shot put and fell flat on his face. Remember, it's on October 9th. This is subject to change.

Recreational This and That

TEEN TOWN — Teen-agers really went to town last Friday night. Despite the coolness of the Old Town Hall the windows had worked up a real steam before the evening was very old. The crowd was large — possibly the largest yet — and the music was both hot and sweet. Every body was happy and the Teen Towners plan another wide-open session this Friday. Incidentally, Teen-agers, there's a big party planned for Friday, November 1st in honour of the witches and shades who break out on Halloween. There'll be games and prizes so start planning your costume now.

FURNITURE: The furniture drive is still on. Remember, we really need that old chair or table that is already in the discard as far as you are concerned. The telephone response has been very poor to date, almost as poor as we are at the Old Town Hall. How about going to the attic just as soon as you read this appeal and give us a call. The number is 8 or 397 r 4. Help us to help community activities.

BRIDGE — The Bridge Club had a small number of faithfuls on Monday, due to other meetings here and there in town, but it is expected that there will be a real crowd next Monday. The hours are from 8 to 11 and all male bridge players are welcome. If your bridge has become a bit rusty — don't let it bother you — come out anyway — you'll get plenty of practice and help.

In the national advertisement last week for the Pulp and Paper Industry, there was an error in figures. Charlie Hoare is 62 years old and has worked 47 years at the Provincial Mill, Act.

We See This Week

—That Eaton's Order Office has had a new coat of paint.

—That Bob Richardson is away from the Bank of Commerce recuperating from injuries suffered in an auto accident near Galt the week-end before last.

—That a generous $25 donation has been made by a local donor to the Georgetown Recreational Council.

—That McClure's Home Furnishings have a new Hudson truck to replace "old faithful" which did yeoman service for many years.

—That Ted Bludd has a new red light delivery truck for his painting and decorating business.

—That a new jewellery store will join the growing ranks of Georgetown business establishments next month.

—That Joan Main has entered the nurses' training course at Toronto General Hospital, and that Brenda Robinson is attending Shaw's Business College in the city.

—That removal of the federal subsidy boosted milk prices to 15c a quart effective yesterday — a fifty per cent rise over prices a year ago.

—That Brenda Bell and Judy Bonathan were two diminutive taggers who helped to raise money for the blind last Saturday.

—That prize money amounting to over $1600 is being mailed this week to prizewinners at Georgetown Fair.

—That Mrs. Audrey Sharpe sailed from England on the Scythia last Saturday after serving in England with the St. John Ambulance.

HORNBY

Sponsored by the Hornby Women's Institute the Eckardt Brothers gave their Musical Review in the Princess Theatre at Milton on Wednesday, September 25th. The bell-ringing, cathedral chime playing, and piano work were worthy of appreciation. Considerable skill and ability were displayed. It was difficult, however, to appreciate the shadiness which was substituted for humour, and which put the over-all performance on a much lower level than seemed necessary. Some people in the audience felt that their intelligence had been underestimated by the performers.

Rev. Ross Hare's sermon on "Holes in Our Pockets" was very much appreciated by those who attended the service in the Hornby United Church recently when the minister was absent preaching the Harvest Home sermon at the Millgrove United Church.

The official Board of the Hornby United Church met at the parsonage last Thursday evening, with thirteen members present. Ways and means of paying for the parsonage bathroom installation were dealt with, and the matter of painting the outside of the parsonage, or putting on insulbrick was discussed.

The Hornby United Church is having its Anniversary Services on Sunday, October 6th. Rev. Wesley Hummstedt and his musicians will have charge in the morning at eleven o'clock, and Rev. John McDermid of Brampton, with a quartette, soloist and accompanist will take care of the evening service from eight o'clock.

Mrs. James Bailey has been on a visit to her daughter in East Rochester, New York.

The Spence children have been distributing apples to those in our community who do not grow them. The lowest possible price, nothing. They also entertain their customers with delightful chatter.

The Young Peoples' Union are planning their first meeting of the fall season.

WINS BEAUTIFUL TROPHY AT BELLEVILLE

Ken McMillan, who is once more on his fall round of the falls and horse shows came back from Belleville last week with a beautiful trophy for the best light horse in the show. The trophy, presented for the first time this year, was donated by Dr. Scott of that city, and is a silver horse mounted on a pillar, measuring about eighteen inches in height. It can be seen in the Herald show-window this week.

It is a coincidence that the donor is a native of Halton, coming from Burlington, and that the owner of the horse is also a Halton man. The prize winning horse, Halton Performer, while born in Grey County, has also ancestors in the county for whom he was named, so altogether it was a clean-sweep for Halton in this event.

—Brother-in-law Ed Hoare has been helping out at Bradley's store, where illness of Clayton Bradley and Jack Whitney, who underwent an operation last week, has depleted the staff. Ed is a foreman at the Duplate plant in Ottawa which is on strike at present.

THE WEATHER

by H. L. Huttl

Who said the weather was going from bad to worse, and we were all headed for the bow-wows? Admittedly August was away below normal in heat and rainfall, but the figures for September show it has all been more than made up in the fine mild weather and bountiful rainfalls of the month just passed. While the night temperatures have been slightly above normal, the maximum daytime temperatures have been 5.7 degrees above normal, and have ripened tomatoes and other fruits in due time. The rainfall was also above normal a little over three-quarters of an inch, making a total of 3.34 inches, which has given the fall what a great start.

As we were away last week we give the local records for two weeks.

Legion Notes

L. M. C.

The first regular monthly meeting of this season was held last Thursday evening, September 28th. There was quite a good attendance although it could be a great deal larger with the membership now nearing the 400 mark.

One of the main items of the evening was the election of Sam Tennant as Entertainment convener. Comrade Charlie Parton had resigned in June, and the work had been carried during the summer by Comrade Alex Taylor.

The secretary, Wallace Thompson, read a letter he had received from the Provincial Command, asking that delegates be sent to the convention held last Sunday. It was decided to leave the selection of these to the discretion of the president.

Comrade Owens, brought up the matter of approaching Council to ask that the street to be laid from No. 7 highway in to the site of the War-time Houses now under construction, be named by the Legion branch. This suggestion was met with enthusiasm and it was decided to contact Council immediately. The idea was to name the street after one of the battlefields of the Canadian Army in World War II, such as Dieppe Road, Falaise, or some other such name.

New tables and chairs have been obtained for the beverage room, and add a great deal to the appearance of the room.

Several new members have been accepted in the Branch and an initiation will be held in the near future. The number to be initiated will be around the twenty mark.

The executive seem to have had a busy summer, meeting on the average of every two weeks. This was a result of the remodeling going on, plus a tremendous backlog of business from the spring season.

A number of the Comrades visited the Air Force Association regular meeting last Wednesday night. Harry Hale who was one of the party reported an excellent time, and said he had picked up a lot of ideas for the ex-Air Force get together to be held locally.

A number of members are on the sick list at present and are wished an early recovery. Comrade Jack Whitney is recuperating from an operation.

BALLINAFAD

The September meeting of the W.M.S. was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Jesse McEnery, the president in the chair. The new Study book was introduced by Mrs. J. McEnery and Mrs. Stanley Sinclair following the program outlined in the Missionary Monthly. Arrangements were made for the Autumn Thank Offering Sunday evening, October 27.

Miss Madeline Bilton of the George Armstrong School staff at Hamilton spent the week-end with Joanne Shortill.

A number from this community attended Anniversary Services in Acton United Church Sunday morning to hear Bob McClure give a very inspiring address on his missionary work in China.

Recently several hundred farmers in the district had a chance to see the Willys Universal "Jeep" at work in a setting familiar to them — the farm.

A demonstration, sponsored by Willys dealers of Toronto district, was held on the property of "Bud" Earle, located a few miles south of Brampton, east of No. 10 highway. Some twenty "Jeeps" thrilled spectators with their ability to handle easily a number of tough assignments.

For example, the "Jeeps" gave exhibitions of ploughing, disk-harrowing, cultivating, sawing wood, digging post-holes, operating a hammer mill, towing, etc. It was shown how these versatile vehicles could be used for carrying grain and stock to town and transporting the family.

Although they resemble in many ways the wartime "jeep", it was emphasized that the peacetime version is different in many respects from the original. Pleasing color combinations contrast with the dull olive drab of the "army uniform." The engine has been greatly improved for increased economy and stepped-up performance. In fact it has been re-engineered throughout for its present duties.

A highlight of the program was the first official showing in Canada of the new "Jeep" station wagon, a smart-looking unit with four-cylinder, sixty-three horsepower engine and all-steel body, which can be converted to either business or recreational use.

Among the mechanical features are counter-weighted crank shaft, a gear-driven camshaft, and independent front-wheel suspension. The metal body painted to simulate wood, seats comfortably. Seats may be removed to provide storage space for goods or merchandise.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NEWS

The first term of the 1946-47 school year is well under way with an enrollment of 315. We are happy to report that Miss Hume, our Grade 1 teacher is progressing satisfactorily in the Guelph General Hospital, but it will be some time yet before she will be able to resume her work at the Public School. In the meantime Miss Laura Scott will continue to carry on Miss Hume's work. Our thanks go to Miss Georgina Young who took over the work in Grade III throughout September. We have been fortunate indeed in securing Miss Rowena Stull to continue the work in that Grade until Miss Hume is able to be on duty again.

Miss Marion Hepburn is a new addition to our staff in the capacity of music teacher. We look forward to a happy and profitable year in music.

Our annual field day is planned for this Thursday, October 3 in the park, events to commence at 1:30. Anyone interested in watching the events is invited to come out to the park. Winners at our local field day will compete in an inter-school field day at Acton on Wednesday, October 9th.

Already we have had two ball games with the high school students. The Public School boys were able to win over the High School by a slight margin at a game in the park on Friday, September 20th. Then last Friday we allowed the High School girls to give our girls quite a trimming to sort of even up for the boys. After the field day on Thursday, the boys are going to play again and we hear the G.H.S. fellows are really out for revenge. It should be a good game.

The student body really went to town last Thursday and Friday in collecting baskets throughout the town. About 1200 were brought to the school which will realize about $36 for the school treasury. A concentrated paper drive will be made during the week of October 21.

First Peace Time Fair at Acton Sees Many New Events

The first peace-time fair in seven years at Acton will see many of the old features revived and new ones introduced. Back comes the first night Big Arena Show on Friday, October 4th, with Horos, Box Lacrosse, Ponies, Clowns, Bands and Hall Exhibits open.

The second day on Saturday, October 5th sees Horse Racing back again on a good fast track. The Prize List should draw the biggest exhibit of horses and livestock ever shown at this fair. Back again from wartime use is the Hall where fruits, baking, homecraft and children's work will again be on display. Two bands will be on the Saturday program, Acton Boys' Band and Ernie Brown's Melboro Dollar Band from Toronto, which has been the hit of many Western Ontario events this year. Everything points to a new high record for exhibits and attendance at Acton Fair this year.

Mrs. Thomas Mason entertained at a kitchen shower on September 20, and the Postal staff and mail carriers presented her with a lovely coffee table. Her mother entertained at a trossau tea on the Wednesday preceding the wedding. Miss Frances Deans poured tea, assisted by Mrs. William McDonald and Miss Josephine Curtie.
