Outstanding Holstein Show Held at Milton Fair

The 8th annual Black and White show staged at Milton Fair by the Halton Holstein Club, was a great achievement for President Emerson Ford and his fellow Halton breeders. Thirty-five breeders from the three Townships of Esquesing, Nelson, and Trafalgar, paraded a total of 143 Black and Whites for Judge D. S. Duntion, of Brampton. Glenafon R. A. Monogram, a massive smooth 2 year old, won the Grand Championship in males, for Harold Bingham and Son of Georgetown with Elton McLean getting Reserve on Spring Farm Carl Innovation, the winning three year old. The strong yearling bull class with ten entries brought out the Junior and Reserve Junior Champions. Spring Farm Black Diamond secured Judge Duntion's decision for T. J. Brownridge and Arthur Raddell of Georgetown, over R. C. Gliven Raymondale Salax.

In the female section, last year's champion, Kneeland Farm Belle, repeated for Max Greenberg of Freeman, with Spruceleigh Annabelle, the winning 3 year old in milk getting the Reserve for Ross Segsworth, of Freeman. The yearling classes again brought out the Junior champion, Elton McLean's winning Junior yearling, Comet Dewdrop Joyce, securing the Junior Champion award over W. H. Robinson's Robros Dixie Piebe, the winning senior yearling.

In the open Get-of-Sire, Ross Segsworth had the winning entry on the get of Springbank R. A. Prince, while in the Junior Get, the award went to F. O. Hunter on the get of F. B. Bonnie Posch. The Bank of Nova Scotia Special for the winning get of 3 animals also went to Segsworth, with F. O. Hunter, Reserve.

Segsworth was again at the top in the open progeny of dam class, with the progeny of Poplar Row Chieftain Maid. The same progeny won the Bank of Commerce Special for Champion progeny. In the Junior progeny of dam class, Elton McLean scored on the progeny of Comet Nita Mantel. The same exhibitor had the winning senior herd, while President E. F. Ford topped the Junior herd class. The T. Eaton Special for the Champion Herd and also the Premier Exhibitor Award went to the veteran breeder, Elton McLean of Oakville, and a popular win it proved to be among his fellow breeders and exhibitors.

The inter-township class brought out three herds, with the award going to Esquesing, and Trafalgar in reserve.

C. D. Graham, Director of Extension, Ontario Department of Agriculture, was the adjudicator in the Calf Club ring. Seventeen Club Members paraded their Holstein calves, with Earl Ford, Hornby; Gordon Darby, Rockwood; and Lorna Lawrence, Oakville, winning the first, second, and third awards.
