LOCAL NEWS

—Opportunity sale in the McGibbon store, Saturday, Nov. 2nd, sponsored by Knox Church W.A.

—Expert washing and ironing, free pick-up and delivery — Georgetown Laundry, Phone 2281.

—Watch for Retail One Cent Sale at Robb's Drug Store. Four days — October 30, 31 — November 1, 2.

—For prompt electrical repairs to appliances and wiring call H. C. Bailey, Charles St., Phone 399w.

—The local Grenfell branch is packing a bale to be sent to the mission in Labrador. Any good, used warm clothing for men, women and children, and hospital supplies will be gratefully received — Mrs. J. B. Mackenzie, Sec'y-Treas., Phone 139.

—Maybe we're wrong but we think the Acton editor must have been counting everybody a couple of times when he estimates the fair crowd in Tannery Town at 10,000. Reports are that the crowd was not as big as that at Georgetown, which stood at 6,000.

—Oddities of nature are reported by Miss Ruth Davis and Mr. Thomas Anderson, both of whom have picked wild strawberries during the past two weeks. The latter also made a present to the editor of a grand basket of Spy apples which were delicious. Thanks, Mr. A.

—Who was the brave taxi driver who piloted five young ladies to Buffalo for Thanksgiving week-end — and how did they ever clear the customs with all those American purchases?

—Bazaar and supper in Knox Church Sunday School rooms, sponsored by Young Ladies' Auxiliary — Saturday afternoon, November 16, Oct. 30.

—Mrs. Grant at the local ration office advises us that ration books for new babies can be issued if the birth notice clipped from a newspaper is attached to the application, and if this is done it is not necessary to produce a birth certificate.

—Don't forget the Rebekah euchre in the Oddfellows Hall, Tuesday, October 29th, 8 p.m. Good prizes including door prize. Light refreshments will be served. Admission, 35c.

—Have your eyes examined by O. T. WALKER, B.O., Optometrist, at his office over the Bell Telephone Co., Main St., Georgetown, the second Wednesday of each month. Or you may consult O. T. Walker at his office in Brampton. Phone Georgetown, 167; Brampton, 599.
