Seating capacity is limited to 300 seats and advance sales point to a sell-out. Tickets obtainable at the drug stores or from members of the Recreational Council.

Here are some excerpts from the Show:

IDA: Never spoil a man, Anne. Never do too much for him. Let him spoil you. That's the way to catch a man and that's the way to hold him — from "A Cookie for Henry" in the LAFF REVUE."

VIVIAN: (whispering) It's enough to make anyone yell. If you only had the mumps or something, but (louder) What are we going to tell people?
— from "Goodnight, Please" in the LAFF REVUE

M.C.: (embarrassed) I'll bet you tell that to all the boys!
Girl: (smiling, naively) No, only to the grown-up ones.
— in the LAFF REVUE

SARGENT - LOUTH WEDDING LAST SATURDAY

Archdeacon W. O. O. Thompson officiated at the wedding in St. George's Church of England on Saturday, November 23rd of Mrs. Emily Louth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hadley and James Mathew Sargent, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Sargent. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length wool jersey winter white dress, trimmed with gold sequins, brown accessories and a corsage of red roses. Her only attendant, her sister Mrs. Alex Korzack, wore a two-piece blue crepe dress with black accessories and corsage of Tallman Roses. Mr. George Sargent was his brother's groomsmen; Mrs. J. F. Williams played the wedding music. A reception for the immediate families was held at the home of the groom's parents on Charles Street. Following a honeymoon trip, the couple will take up residence in Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller of Swastika spent last week with Mr. E. Miller and Mrs. W. J. Roe at their home on the 8th line.

ASHGROVE

The November Women's Institute meeting was held last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Elsie Bird which was decorated with baskets of beautiful mums in honor of her parents who celebrated their golden anniversary the day before. 37 ladies and eleven children were present. The President, Mrs. E. Cunningham opened the meeting. In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Leslie Giffen, her place was kindly taken by Mrs. Russell Espburn who read the minutes of the last meeting and called the Roll which was answered by "How and Why I Like Milk." Mrs. Claude Picket gave the motto "Happy Homes make a Healthy Nation" which had some splendid thoughts in it. A lively debate then took place: Resolved that A Woman's place is in the Home. The affirmative was upheld by Mrs. Archer and Mrs. Walter Brownridge and the negative by Mrs. Leslie Giffen and Mrs. Frank Ruddell. Some excellent points were brought out on both sides and the final decision was in favor of the affirmative. Following this Mrs. Bruce Bridgen gave a humorous reading and Norman Bird, a grandchild, played so nicely two piano solos. The committee served a dainty lunch which included a piece of the anniversary wedding cake.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Dan Wright who had a serious operation last week in a Toronto Hospital is improving nicely.

Congratulations to Mr. Thomas Brownridge who was one of the prize-winners in swine at the Royal Winter Fair.

The Young People held their meeting on Sunday evening at the home of John and Elsie Bird, it being the Christian Culture meeting with Howson Ruddell in charge. The election of officers resulted as follows:

Hon. Pres. — Rev. Fred Ainsworth
President — Miss Betty Ruddell
1st Vice-pres. — Douglas Currie
Secretary Treasurer — Miss Jessie Wingfield
Christian Fellowship Convener — George Wilson
Christian Missions Convener — Miss Isabel Curry
Christian Citizenship Convener — Clayton Dick Jr.
Christian Culture — Floyd Bridgen
Recreational Committee — Miss Ismay Kean, Ward Brownridge and Howson Ruddell.
Press — Miss Jessie Wingfield
