BIRTH NOTICE
HUNTER — Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hunter, Ashgrove, wish to announce the birth of their daughter, at Milton Private Hospital on December 17th, 1946, Nancy Caroline, a sister for Catherine.

IN MEMORIAM

BLAIR — In memory of H16196 Pte. Reg. Blair, P.P.C.I., killed in action on December 20th, 1944.
— His pal "Chuck"

BLAIR — In loving memory of my dear husband, Pte. H. R. Blair, H-16196, of the P.P.C.I., who was killed in Italy, December 20th, 1944.
Not a day do we forget you
In our hearts always near
As we go through the years.
— Deeply loved and sadly missed by wife Nancy and son Jimmy.

BLAIR — In loving memory of our dear son, Pte. R. R. Blair, H-16196, of the P.P.C.I. who was killed in Italy December 20th, 1944.

The blow came quick, the sting severe
In our thoughts he is ever near.
Loved, remembered, longed for always
Bringing many a silent tear.
Not being there to say good-bye
Will always bring regret,
But the hearts that think of you today.

Are the ones who won't forget.
— Ever remembered by Mom, Dad, sisters and brother.

DOUGSON — In loving memory of Alice Emily Dougson, beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Walker, who passed away Dec. 19th, 1938.

What we would give her hand to clasp,
Her patient face to see;
To hear her voice, to see her smile,
As in the days that used to be.
But some sweet day we'll meet again
Beyond the toll and strife,
And clasp each other's hand once
more

In Heaven, that happy life.
— Mother and Dad, Hazel and George

LATIMER — In proud and loving memory of a dear son and brother B46828 Pte. George Latimer, Irish Reg't. of Canada. Killed in action in Italy, Dec. 20th, 1944. Buried in the 5th Canadian Armoured Division Cemetery, Villanova, Italy.

When evening shades are falling,
And we sit in quiet alone,
To our heart there comes a longing
If he only could come home forgotten
Friends may think we have forgotten
When at times they see us smile
But they little know the heart-ache
Our smiles hide all the while.
— Ever remembered by Dad, brothers Ron and Doug and sister Joan.

MARCHMENT — In loving memory of a dear mother, Mrs. Richard Marchment who died December 30th, 1942.

No one knows how much I miss you,
No one knows the bitter pain
I have suffered since I lost you
Life has never been the same.
In my heart your memory lingers,
Sweetly tender, fond and true,
There is not a day, dear mother,
I do not think of you.

— Sadly missed by daughter, Gladys.

MARCHMENT — In loving memory of Mrs. Richard Marchment, who passed away December 30th, 1942.

A wonderful mother, woman and aid,
One who was better God never made.
A wonderful worker, loyal and true,
One in a million, that mother was you.

Just in your judgment, always right,
Honest and liberal, ever upright;
Loved by your friends and all you
knew,
A wonderful mother, that mother
was you.

— Ever remembered by husband and family.

REID — In loving memory of Joan Reid, who died December 21st, 1944.

What would we give her hand to clasp
Her patient face to see;
To hear her voice, to see her smile,
As in the days that used to be.
But some sweet day we'll meet again
Beyond the toll and strife,
And clasp each other's hand once
more

In heaven that happy life.
— Always remembered by her mother and Dad, brothers and sister.

SHARPE — In loving memory of a dear son and brother Frederick J. Sharpe who passed away suddenly at Barrie, December 17th, 1944.

The flowers we placed upon your grave,
May wither and decay,
But the love for him who sleeps beneath
Shall never fade away.
— Ever remembered by his mother, brother and sister.

SHARPE — In loving memory of our dear mother, who passed away suddenly on December 19th, 1941.

What would we not give to clasp her hand,
Her dear face to see,
To hear her voice, to see her smile,
That meant so much to me.
You left behind you aching hearts,
That loved you most sincere
We never did, nor never will,
Forget you, Mother dear.

— Ever remembered by her daughters Eileen and Marjorie and son Donald.

— Ever remembered by Audrey M. Sharpe.

WHITE — In loving memory of our dear mother, who passed away suddenly on December 19th, 1941.

What would we not give to clasp her hand,
Her dear face to see,
To hear her voice, to see her smile,
That meant so much to me.
You left behind you aching hearts,
That loved you most sincere
We never did, nor never will,
Forget you, Mother dear.

— Ever remembered by his mother, brother and sister.
