

Georgetown under the leadership of Lt. Col. Blodgett and Capt. Richardson, closed up a well-earned win in their opening game against Milton in the County town Monday night. This despite the fact that at the last minute it was found that three players were over-age due to a misreading of the regulations, and it was necessary to find replacements for Gord King, Archie Campbell and Mel Beaumont. Georgetown would have made even a better showing had they not had a man in the penalty box most of the
