Rockwood Girl Auditions For American Radio

Joanne Stout of Rockwood flew to New York City from Toronto yesterday for auditions by two of the large American radio networks. Miss Stout, an experienced amateur actress, won the third Whitehall "Stars to Be" series, prize for which was a six-day all-expense trip to Manhattan with a screen test and auditions by CBO and NBC.

That Independent Young Man

Standing squarely on his own feet, that independent young man has made certain his parents will not suffer unnecessary financial loss should anything happen to him.

Then, too, as an astute young business man, he recognizes the many all-round advantages available to young people through Life Assurance.

MRS. A. B. CASTELL DEAD IN HIGHGATE

A former well-known Georgetown lady, Mrs. Arthur B. Castell, died in Highgate last Wednesday, January 8th, where she had been making her home with her niece, Mrs. Nels McIntyre. Mrs. Castell lived with her husband in Georgetown from 1905 to 1930, where he was town bandmaster and choirmaster at Knox Presbyterian Church. She was active in church work at St. George's Church of England.

Mrs. Castell was born in Highgate about eighty-five years ago. Following her marriage in December, 1880, the couple made their home in Warton until coming to Georgetown. In 1930 they returned to Highgate, where Mr. Castell predeceased her in May 1940. She was an aunt by marriage of Tom and Arthur Herbert of Georgetown.

New Year's Day Birthdate For Two Georgetown Babies

In years to come, at least two young men in Georgetown will have no trouble remembering their birthdays, which will always come on the first day of the year. In addition, one of them has the distinction of being the first baby born in the city of Guelph in 1947, and he was featured in a front-page story in the January 2nd issue of the Guelph Mercury. He is Lawrence William Tennant, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Tennant and his mother is an English girl whom his father met while serving overseas with the army. Lawrence, who tipped the scales at six pounds, 8½ ounces, entered the world at 11:50 a.m. on New Year's morning. Runner-up for the first Guelph baby honour was Terence Robert Lane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lane, who was born in the same Guelph hospital later that day.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR FREDERICK BURTENSCHAW

Funeral services were held last Wednesday from the McClure Funeral Home for Frederick Burtenschaw, who passed away on Monday, January 6th, in his 88th year. Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson officiated at the service. A native of Epsom, England, he came to Canada in 1908 and resided in Beamsville until coming to Georgetown in 1911. He was employed here for a number of years at the Provincial Coating Mill. For the last twenty-five years he resided in Hamilton, but owing to failing health returned here to stay with his son, William, at whose home he passed away. Left to mourn his loss are his wife, formerly Mary Ann Kitchen, three daughters, Mrs. Emily James, Georgetown, Mrs. Edward James (Eibel), Hamilton, and Mrs. Lorne Dunn (Florence), Acton, and one son, William of Georgetown.

Followers were six grandsons of the deceased, Bud and Bill James of Georgetown, Edward and Fred James and William Burtenschaw Jr. of Hamilton, and Fred Castle of Toronto. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank all my friends and school pals, for their kindnesses to me after my knee operation in Toronto Western Hospital and while shut in at home.

An Empty Bowl!

is the lot of millions of homeless orphans in war-torn China

Brought to the orphanage at Hangyang, this starving boy had only an empty bowl.

Millions of orphans, widows, peasant farmers, uprooted and despoiled by war, hungry, sick, homeless, are perishing for want of food, clothes, shelter, medical supplies.

UNRRA relief is ending; voluntary agencies must redouble their efforts. China, a good neighbor and customer, calls piteously to YOU, a fortunate Canadian, for help. In better days, she will not forget!

Be Generous! China, a Good Neighbor, calls to CANADIAN AID TO CHINA
