HORNBY

The Women's Association of the Hornby United Church convened at the home of Mrs. Wilmer J. Thompson on Thursday afternoon, February 6th. The business part of the meeting was in charge of the president of the organization, Mrs. Wellington Stinger. A bazaar and crochete party were planned for some time in the future, and arrangements made for the World Day of Prayer meeting to be held in the United Church on Friday, February 21st, from three o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Archie King is the Key Woman for this meeting. The devotional part of the program was in charge of Mrs. Fred Almsworth, who gave a talk on "Women of Japan and Their Customs", telling of women she had known in that country. She also showed a few articles used by the Japanese people. Refreshments were provided by Mrs. James Bailey and Mrs. Clifford Wrightworth, assisted by Mrs. Wilmer Thompson. All seemed to have a very profitable time. This organization does a lot of good work over the year and is a great help to the church.

Mrs. Lindsay Neelands who had been waiting for entrance into the Milton Hospital, has had her operation for appendicitis and is back home again feeling much better. She reports a new feature in operations now is the getting out of bed for light exercise as early as the next day following the operation, with beneficial results.

The three churches on the United Church Charge were without services on February 9th owing to the storm which drifted up the roads and lanes. Some folks who tried to get in to Milton found the bare line too badly drifted, and were forced to return home, though one car is reported to have been towed from Nelson's to Milton. Milk cans waited on the roadside over night and well into the next day. Young folks took advantage of the day and played hockey in the lee of the houses, and one group hitched a toboggan to a friend's car and were towed precariously up and down the highway for a while. The rink has been under the weather lately, snowed up, so to speak.
