HORNBY

The Bethel United Church YPU met in the basement of the church on Tuesday, February 25th. It was Christian Fellowship night, and Douglas Shaw was in charge of the program.

His talk centred around the idea that important and necessary things could not be omitted from life without suffering collapse. The business session brought out the information that the Missionary Convener of the Hamilton Conference YPU has been appointed to go to Oslo to attend the World Conference of Christian Youth, and will probably sail about July of this year.

The Spring Rally of the Bethel United Church YPU is to be held on Easter Monday evening, with the Burlington United Church as the probable location; recreation will be emphasized. The next meeting of the Bethel YPU is to be held at the home of Jack Rylance, the president, on March 11, and will be Christian Missions night in charge of Bob Ford.

Several of our people have been ill recently. Mrs. Lindsay Neelands in the Milton Hospital for an appendectomy, Mrs. Floyd Downs in the same hospital for an operation had a difficult time for a while, and gave us anxiety. Mr. John Pickett in St. Joseph's Hospital in Hamilton for an operation. Mrs. Victor Hall at home ill, Miss Lela Featherstone confined to bed with a nervous illness, and her mother having a slight injury the result of a fall. At this time all are said to be doing well.

February's cold blasts slant-surfaced our roads in some places shoulder high with snow, and hung white curtains across them, making it difficult at times for drivers to see much beyond the front of their cars. At one place we saw four milk trucks and a tractor assembled at the cross-roads to help pull out one of their number from a snowdrift into which it had too bravely plunged, and settled down to an immobile wedge, dis-tractioned.

In another place a truck met a passenger car and shook radiators with it through the snow curtain, and still another car, whose driver said he was in a hurry to get to the city, braked unwisely, spun round, and ended up peaking out of a drift at the side of the road. In some places the best people could do was to stand and look down their road, nothing could possibly move up or down it. Lanes filled up, were plowed out, and filled up again with distracting regularity. And March, which gambled in like a lamb, soon began to do likewise with our weather.

RANGERS, LEAFS WIN G.R.C. HOCKEY CHAMPIONSHIPS

The midget and bantam hockey play-offs were held on Monday night in the Arena, with the Rangers defeating the Red Wings, 5-0 and in the bantam league, the Leafs defeating the Red Wings, 7-1, for the Simmons Jewellers trophy. Dr. Clifford Reid presented the John F. Kelly trophy to the captain of the winning midget team.

LIMEHOUSE
Blocked roads postponed the box social for a couple of weeks. Visitors with Mrs. A. J. Smethurst recently were: Mrs. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Smethurst and Jacqueline and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Paul, all of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. W. Shelbourne and daughters with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Powell at Lowville on Sunday. School was closed on Tuesday and no workers were able to get out of the village. A dozen men and women helped shovel a road to the highway on Tuesday night.
