INSPECTOR BRUCE SPEAKS TO LADIES ON EDGE SCHOOL DISTRICT

Taking for his topic "The High School district and what takes place in rural schools," L. L. Bruce, Halton public school inspector gave a timely address to the members of the Local Council of Women who met last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. B. Paul. He was introduced by Mrs. E. T. Paul and thanked by Mrs. J. B. MacKenzie.

Twenty-two ladies were present and the president, Mrs. Paul, welcomed the new members and expressed her appreciation of the number coming out in the stormy weather. Mrs. W. F. Smith reported that Miss Nicolson, representing the Victorian Order of Nurses would speak to the ladies at their April 10th meeting, giving details on starting an Order in town. An invitation came from Weston Local Council inviting the ladies to their meeting on April 29th to hear Miss Chisholm.

A motion was made that each member give a dollar for fund-raising at the next meeting. Refreshments and a cup of tea were served by the hostesses.

ence, and as usual gave a most interesting address filled with meat in more ways than one.

Stanley L. Hall, M.P.P. paid tribute to the excellent contribution being made by the officers and members of the Halton Crop Improvement Association, and also expressed the hope that in the not too distant future, Ontario would have her own marketing agencies in Great Britain so that Ontario farmers might receive financial recognition for quality products. Mr. Hall also presented the T. Eaton Spectacles to Messrs. Wilfred Leslie and Fred Nurse.

Agricultural Representative J. E. Whitehead announced the awards of the Halton Junior Farmer Judging Competitions held on Saturday morning. Fraser McNabb of Georgetown, was not only high in the Junior section, but Champion judge of the day. The same competitor won the Halton Seed Growers' Trophy in judging cereal grains.
