GOOD NUMBER OF SUPPORTERS FOLLOWED TEAM TO ONEMEE FOR PLAY-OFF

Notwithstanding the March winds, bad road conditions and the fact that Onemee arena is some 112 miles distant, a goodly number of local sport fans followed their team there on Friday night last, where they met Peterborough in an Intermediate 'A' OHA hockey play-off.

Having finished their group and eliminated both Stratford and Niagara Falls in the play-downs, the Georgetown Club stacked up against Peterborough for the semi-finals. The Onemee arena was packed to the doors for this game, and after sixty minutes of exciting play on soft ice, they finished with a 5-all tie.

Judging from the summary sheet, Nicky Ferri was probably one of the leading stars of the game with two goals to his credit, while Murray Ezeard also scored once and gathered in an assist. Blewett seemed to be the outstanding star on the Peterborough team and helped himself to three goals with the assistance of Burton and Heal.
