Dear Friends:—

During the war the Germans were the enemy; now it's nature's havoc. Destruction, dirt, lack of public utilities and clothing, and collapse of food distribution are the problems with which the suffering British people again have to cope.

This DRIVE hopes to collect an article of new or used clothing from every resident, as well as quantities of non-perishable food stuffs. Perhaps you would prefer to make a cash donation and it will be gratefully received.

Whatever the extent of your contribution to the British Flood Relief Campaign, the balance of credit will remain forever on the other side. We shall never be able to repay Britain; British Flood Relief, however, can be a token of our undying appreciation.
