LIMEHOUSE

Mrs. W. McClure of Brampton was speaker at the May W.M.S. meeting held at Mrs. Mitchell's on Thursday last. She gave an interesting report of the Synodical meeting in Toronto in April, giving highlights from the address heard there.

Mrs. A. W. Norton sang "O Perfect Day" during the program and text word "open" was used on roll call answers. Mesdames Mitchell and Sanford served refreshments afterwards.

The group of Laneshouse W. I. ladies put on their short play "Tea and Scandal" as part of the program for British Flood Relief in Glen Williams Parish Hall on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Keddy of Vancouver, B.C. and Mrs. Weatherall of Toronto were Sunday visitors with J. W. and Jas. Nickell.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Benton and boys visited the Greenlees at Milton on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mills and Susan and Miss Helen Mills visited Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Mills here on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Newton of Barrie were with his parents on Sunday.

Miss Maude Brown Re-elected Music Festival Head

Miss Maude M. Brown, Freeman, was re-elected president of the Halton Music Festival Association when the annual meeting was held in Milton Public School on April 30th.

The report of Miss Ethel L. Donkin, secretary, showed that although there were not so many classes at the festival this year it was most successful. There were 83 entrants from urban centres, 24 from high schools and 70 from rural public schools. Entry fees had been abolished this year and organizations throughout the county had generously assisted to leave a balance of $371.85 on hand after all disbursements had been made. An offer by the Halton Male Choir to donate two $50 scholarships to the boy and girl showing most musical promise was declined with thanks, as the association felt the rules of the constitution did not empower them to accept such a grant.

Instead, the Association awarded two scholarships of their own, these being won by Jean Chester, Norval, and Douglas Keen, Burlington.

The following officers were elected: Honorary Presidents — J. M. Denyes, Mrs. George Atkins
President — Miss M. Brown, Freeman
Vice Presidents — Mrs. L. Crawford, Campbellville; Kenneth Gilles; Trafalgar; Miss L. Evans, Georgetown.
Secretary — Miss E. Donkin, Burlington.

Assy. Sec'y. — Mrs. G. E. Goodchild, Milton
Treasurer — J. A. Lockhart, Burlington
