BOB GOLDMAN HAS BONE GRAFT OPERATION

Bob Goldman, Georgetown's Maple Leaf hockey player, was able to leave hospital yesterday where he had undergone an operation on his arm which was badly injured in a hockey game early last season. The arm had not healed properly, and it was necessary to graft a bone from Bob's leg in place of the broken arm bone. The cast will not be removed until June and friends in town are hoping that everything will be O.K. and Bob will be back at his defence position with the Maple Leafs next winter.

HEARD SUNDAYS

Richard Seaborn, Canadian violinist, who has become well known as a solo artist and as a conductor on CBC network musical shows. He is currently heard as first violinist with the orchestra of "Sunday Serenade," broadcast over mid-west stations of the CBC Trans-Canada network, Sundays at 11.30 p.m. EDT.

BASKETBALL SEASON OPENS MAY 24 IN OAKVILLE

Georgetown Intermediates will play their first season's ball game in Oakville on May 24th. Last night the schedule was drawn up for the four-team county league. Georgetown, Milton and Oakville will be in Intermediate "C" and Oakville in Intermediate "B", but in order to make a better grouping in the county, Oakville will be allowed to play in the Halton league.

Officials of the league were elected at a meeting in Oakville last week and are:

- President — E. Ryder, Acton
- Vice-Pres.—Clarence Riddell, Milton
- Sec'y.—Trenn—J. F. Royston, Acton
- Perc Blackburn and "Scotty" Patterson represented Georgetown Ball Club at the meeting. Prospects look good for a winning team and the club looks for good support from local ball fans.
