

They're in The Standard!

Your Old Friends Have Moved to Juniper Junction

You'll now find them in The Standard's comic section in full colour — every week! Archie and The Missus, Chief Pinchall, Pig-skin Peters, Th' Cap, and Th' Nozark have moved to Juniper Junction with Jim Frise. This is another first for The Standard — the first newspaper in which a Canadian comic has appeared in full colour. Don't forget—you can follow the frolics of these lovable characters in The Standard every week!

Also the Weekly Adventures of GREG CLARK AND JIM FRISE

What's happened to those Greg Clark and Jim Frise stories? They're in The Standard, too! Greg and Jim have kept Canadians laughing at their antics for years . . . and they're still up to their old tricks. Look for Greg and Jim in The Standard!

WHAT COUNTY COUNCIL DID — ON TUESDAY, MAY 13

— Instructed Clerk William Deane to prepare a by-law setting up a High School District in north Halton for the municipalities of Milton, Acton, Equeusing and Nassagaweya. The by-law will be presented at the June meeting.

— Entertained sixty boys and girls representing public schools in the county. The children attended the morning session of Council, had dinner at St. Paul's Church, and toured the county buildings in the afternoon. Murray Johnston, an entrance class pupil, was the Georgetown Public School representative.

— Offered $55 in prizes to the ten children writing the best essay on their visit to County Council.

— Increased the salary of the county buildings' caretaker from $350 to $400 yearly.

DR. ARCHER WALLACE IS GLEN ANNIVERSARY PREACHER

Rev. Dr. Archer Wallace of Toronto, editor of the Onward, preached to large congregations at morning and evening services in Glen Williams United Church on Sunday, when the congregation celebrated the 107th anniversary of the founding of the church. He spoke in the morning on "The Kingdom of God Within," and in the evening on "The Wonderful Love of God." The minister, Rev. F. J. Dunlop, assisted with the services.

The choir which had prepared special musical selections for the day, was assisted in the evening by Miss Florence Laidlaw, of Norval, who sang two solos.

On Monday evening, the church was filled to capacity to hear Dr. Wallace lecture on "Memories of the Old Land."

CANADIAN HOLSTEINS BY AIR TO ECUADOR

A shipment of ten head of Canadian Holsteins left Malton Airport May 13 with Quito, Ecuador, as their destination. This is an exceptionally fine group of cattle assembled by International Livestock Exporters Limited, Toronto, for Pablo Guarderas Villacis, Quito, Ecuador. The group consisted of five bulls and five heifers. Consignors to this shipment included E. J. Meagher, Oakville, who contributed Graymar Lochinvar Victor, a son of Montvic Rag Apple Paragon; and E. Ross Segsworth, Freeman, three yearling heifers, Spruceleigh; Posch Annabelle, Spruceleigh; Chieftain Wayne and Spruceleigh Rag Apple Sylvia.

TOWNSHIP BONDS — SELL AT PREMIUM

Good news was received by Toronto Township Council when it was reported that the $43,500 debentures to finance watermain in water areas 1 and 2, as installed in 1946, had brought $102.90. They bear 3 per cent for ten years.

PROTEIN PACKED

Two medium-sized eggs substitute satisfactorily for one serving of meat as far as protein is concerned and the yolk is packed with vitamins and minerals. We should aim at eating at least three eggs a week, say nutrition authorities.
